BULLER AT THE CAPE

British Commander Reaches South Africa.

BOERS' ATTACK ON LADYSMITH.

Shelled the Place, but a Naval Reinforcement Silenced Their Battery With Their Guns—Smith's Forces Drove the Boers Back Several Miles.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Cape Town announced the arrival in Table bay of the Dunottar Castle, with General Sir Redvers Buller and his staff. They will meet with a tremendous ovation in Cape Town.

It is reported from Pretoria that 200 of the British wounded from Dundee have arrived there and have been furnished accommodation in the state school building.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from General Buller in part as follows: "I employed all the troops here except the obligatory garrison before the works. I sent a mountain battery, the Royal Irish Fusiliers and the Gloucesters to take up a position on the hills, to clear my left flank. During some night firing the battery mules stampeded with some of the guns, which, however, I hope to recover. These two battalions have not yet returned, but are expected. "I detailed two brigade divisions of field artillery and five battalions of infantry, aided by cavalry, under General French, to attack a position upon which the enemy mounted guns. We found this position evacuated, but our force was attacked with considerable vigor by what I believe were General Joubert's troops. They had many guns and showed in great numbers. Our troops were all in action and we pushed the enemy back several miles, but did not succeed in reaching his laager. Our losses are estimated at between 80 and 100, but those of the enemy must have been much greater, the fire of our guns appearing very effective.

"After being in action several hours I withdrew the troops and they returned unmolested to their cantonments. The enemy are in great numbers and their guns range further than our field guns. "I now have some naval guns which have temporarily silenced and, I hope, will permanently dominate the enemy's best guns, with which he has been bombarding the town at a range of over 6,000 yards."

A war office dispatch from Cape Town, dated Oct. 26, said: "An armored train under Llewellyn, got within 1,000 yards of the Boer laager, three miles south of Crocodile Poort. The Boers had driven in their horses on the approach of the train. Three Maxim bets were discharged into the Boers, who must have had considerable loss. They then returned ten shots with no effect. Colonel Plumer's outposts has had several skirmishes on the Crocodile river."

From later advices it was learned that the Llewellyn train returned to Mochudi, 100 miles north of Mafeking. Llewellyn reported all quiet.

LORENZO MARQUES, Delagoa Bay, Oct. 31.—A dispatch received here from Pretoria, under date of Oct. 28, said: General Cronje, the Boer commander, announced there that the British garrison at Mafeking made a bayonet attack on Commandant Louw's laager, near Oranustand, but were repulsed, leaving six dead on the field, and it was believed that many of the attacking party were wounded. The dispatch adds that Saturday morning Colonel Baden-Powell asked for an armistice in order to bury the dead. General Cronje consented to this, the Boers assisting in placing the dead in the wagon returning to Mafeking.

PLACED IN THE TOMB.

Remains of General Henry Rest Near Those of His Old Chief—President at the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—General Guy V. Henry was given military burial at Arlington, his grave being close to the Temple of Fame and close to that of his old commander, General Crook. The president and secretary of war and other members of the cabinet attended the services both at the church and at the cemetery. The military escort consisted of a battery of artillery, Troop I of the Third cavalry, now stationed at Fort Myer, where General Henry was once in command, and the members of the Guy V. Henry garrison, a colored veterans' association comprising many of the old troopers of the Tenth cavalry who served under Henry in the west.

St. John's church, where the first service was held, was crowded and the chancel was filled with flowers, conspicuous among them was a great white wreath from the executive mansion. The president and Secretary Root came together to the church. There were present also Secretary Hay, Assistant Postmaster General Heath, Adjutant General Corbin, General Fitzhugh Lee and many other of General Henry's old friends in the service. The pallbearers were General J. M. Wilson, chief of engineers; Judge Advocate General Lieber, General A. W. Greely, chief signal officer, and Generals Frank, Rugles and Barnard.

A FERRYBOAT CUT IN TWO IN HARBOR.

A Disastrous Collision at New York. Number of Lives May Be Lost. One Body Found.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Pennsylvania ferryboat Chicago, plying between Jersey City and New York, was cut in two by the steamer City of Augusta of the Old Dominion steamship line, at 12:35 this morning on the New York side of North river. She went down in seven or eight minutes. There were between 30 and 40 people aboard, four being women. It is supposed that several persons were drowned, though there is no positive proof of this assertion.

In spite of the severity of the accident there was no panic.

The steamboat squad a few minutes before 2 o'clock found a body, which is supposed, is that of one of the passengers on the ferryboat, drowned as the result of the collision.

Mr. H. W. Bible of this city jumped overboard with a life preserver. He saw four women struggling in the water near him, but was unable to help them. He was picked up by a lifeboat and taken ashore.

Searchlight was used in the work of rescue. A number of tugs and some boats were secured. Everything was done possible under the circumstances to pick up persons from the water. One boat brought in six men, two women and a child.

Christmas Boxes For Manila.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—At the army pier in Brooklyn a corps of men were busily engaged receiving and recording the wagonloads of boxes which come in from all parts of the country for the United States soldiers in the Philippines. The government furnishes free transportation, and many persons are taking advantage of the fact to send Christmas boxes to their relatives and friends in Manila.

Dyer Asked to Be Relieved.

MELROSE, Mass., Oct. 31.—Captain N. M. Dyer, U. S. N., who commanded the Baltimore at the Manila fight and who has been assigned to Havana to command the naval station there, has asked to be relieved of that duty, owing to his physical condition.

HAVANA, Oct. 31.—Governor General Brooke received a petition signed by a number of Cuban farmers urging protection against American corn.

THE REBELS SCATTERED

Bell's Regiment Had Encounters With Them.

LAWTON THE NIGHT GENERAL.

Aguinaldo's Sobriquet For the American. Has High Opinion of Our Soldiers. Refused to Surrender and Illtreats Sick Spaniards—Americans Well Treated.

MANILA, Oct. 31.—Three companies of Colonel Bell's regiment had two encounters with the insurgents near Labam and scattered them. The insurgents left four officers and eight men dead on the field and the Americans captured three prisoners and several guns. On the American side, one man was killed and two officers and six men were wounded.

Captain French took a reconnoitering party beyond Labam, after he had met the enemy and was reinforced by Major Bishop with two companies. The insurgents brought up cavalry reinforcements and there was a second fight, during which their leader, Major Salvador, was killed and many were wounded and carried away.

Colonel Bell had been given a free hand around Bacolor. He had about 60 mounted men scouring the country daily and they were killing many Filipinos in skirmishes.

The Spanish commission, which entered the insurgent lines a month ago with money to relieve the wants of several thousand military and civil Spanish prisoners, returned to Manila. The commissioners reported that they spent most of the time in Tarlac and vicinity, where there were some 200 sick Spaniards in the hospital. The Filipinos ill-treated and illfed them, refusing to surrender them, as well as the other Spanish prisoners, in the hope of compelling Spain to recognize the independence of the islands.

There were 14 American prisoners, they said, at Tarlac, all of whom were well treated. Lieutenant S. C. Gilmore of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who fell into the hands of the insurgents at Baler, on the east coast of Luzon last April, where the Yorktown had gone on a special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison, was at Binzot.

The commissioners brought a letter to General Otis from a relative of the murdered Filipino General Luna, who wished to avenge the assassination by Aguinaldo's officers, and who asked a personal interview with the military governor.

According to the commissioners' statement, Aguinaldo, who was at Tarlac with about 3,000 troops, wished to continue the war, although he had a high opinion of the American officers and soldiers. General Lawton he called "El General de la Noche" (the night general), because that commander has attacked him so often in the darkness that he never knew when to look for him.

Aguinaldo was said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition and he was able to get plenty of rice from the northern provinces.

With the Spanish commissioners came a large number of women, the families of eight prominent officers of the Filipino army, who recently applied to General Otis for permission to send their families to Manila. Upon the receipt of the military governor's reply, the nature of which had not been disclosed, the women and children started under escort from Tarlac for the American lines. When they arrived General MacArthur compelled them to halt about a mile beyond our outposts, where they were to remain while their credentials were being examined.

AMERICANS WELCOMED.

Insurgent Troops Had Fled From Cabanatuan—Bates Governor of Mohammedan Island.

MANILA, Oct. 31.—(8:50 a. m.)—Major Ballance's battalion of the Twenty-second infantry entered Cabanatuan yesterday, meeting with no resistance. The natives welcomed the Americans, shouting "Viva Los Americanos." The insurgent troops had fled to the mountains.

General Bates will be appointed military governor of the Mohammedan islands, with headquarters at Jolo until Zamboanga is occupied.

General Fred Grant will command General Bates' brigade.

TRAIN WRECKED IN THE FOG.

Fireman Killed on Pittsburg and Western—Engineer Hurt.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Oct. 31.—The Chicago express on the Pittsburg and Western railroad was wrecked in the darkness and fog at Carbon station, seven miles west of here. The fireman was killed and the engineer was injured. Several passengers were also injured, but not seriously. The casualties follow:

George Holliday, fireman, killed by the engine falling on him. He was single and resided at Bennett, Pa.

George Cupps, engineer, cut and bruised, condition not serious, was removed to the Allegheny General hospital. He is married and lives at Mars, Pa.

At Clarion station are a number of switches which run to West New Castle junction. A westbound coal train was halted on the main track at this point for the Chicago express to pass. After the switches had been turned, the passenger was given signals of a clear track by way of a side track around the freight train. The engineer put on steam and the locomotive was soon at a good speed. It dished on the side track and into an open switch.

PHILIPPINE COMMISSION MET.

Proceedings to Be Kept Secret Until Deliberations Are Over.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Philippine commission held its first meeting at the quarters selected for them in the Arlington. Prof. Schurman on reaching Washington paid an early call at the state department, after which he went to the commission's rooms, where Admiral Dewey and Colonel Denby were waiting.

It was announced before the meeting that all the sessions would be secret and that none of the deliberations would be made public until the commission had finished its labors. Colonel Denby said that no program had been arranged and that it was impossible to say even what general course would be followed till after the commissioners had discussed the matter.

Probably Four of the 42 Wives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Chief of Detectives Collieran received a telegram from Baltimore stating that Walter L. Farnsworth, the confessed bigamist now in jail here, and who is said to have had 42 wives, is wanted in that city for marrying four women under the name of Sterling Orville Thomas. The prisoner does not deny this is his real name. Marie Larson, 718 Sixth street, Philadelphia, also thinks she is one of Farnsworth's wives, and has written Captain Collieran to send her a picture of the bigamist.

A LONG ELECTRIC LINE

Plans to Unite Cleveland and Pittsburg.

CAPITALISTS WORK ON THE SCHEME

Said to Desire to Make Cleveland Pivot Point of Greatest Suburban Electric System in World—To Inspect Available Lines.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—Certain eastern and Ohio capitalists are said to be desirous of making Cleveland the pivot point of the greatest suburban electric railway system in the world. About 25 Philadelphia and other capitalists are expected in Cleveland today to interview representatives of street railway companies and members of the chamber of commerce. The visitors will probably remain in the city for a few days, and will make tours of inspection over the various suburban lines.

In a few weeks they have visited Niles, Youngstown, Warren and other places in the northeastern section of the state, inspecting various suburban lines. Steps have already been taken toward the establishment of the new system, about 250 miles of right of way having been secured in the northeastern section of the state. Franchises have already been secured for the new road at Burton, Jefferson and Andover. In order to facilitate the work a corporation, known as the Burton, Jefferson and Andover Electric Railway company, has been formed.

The officers are: Eugene Rawdon, president; W. H. Dodge, vice president; A. H. Lindsley, treasurer, and E. H. Green, secretary. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the suburban line between Warren and Youngstown.

Representatives of the eastern investors are at work between Youngstown and Pittsburg and within a few years Cleveland and Pittsburg will be the terminals of the largest electric railway system in the country. At present, however, it is proposed to start with Cleveland as the basic point, and build out in an easterly and southeasterly direction.

PENNSY MAY GET CONTROL

Confirmation of Lima & Northern Branch Sale to Be Asked.

TOLEDO, Oct. 31.—W. B. Strang, who recently purchased the St. Mary's branch of the Detroit and Lima Northern, will ask the United States court for a confirmation today, and it is believed a move will be made to ask a removal of the receiver of the Lima Northern as well.

Mr. Strang was reticent as to the exact move he intended to make in court today. When questioned as to the sale of the St. Mary's division to the Pennsylvania lines, or to the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, he stated that such a sale had been thought of, but no negotiations are in progress.

FRIARS ORDERED FROM GUAM.

Captain Leary Would Allow Only One to Remain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The navy department received a report from Captain Leary, the naval governor of the island of Guam, in the Larrones. The president himself has read the report.

Captain Leary soon learned that his authority as governor was being subverted and every one of the measures of reform which he proposed was being defeated by the hostile influence of the friars. He ordered them out of the island, saying he would give them transportation.

That left but one friar on the island, and he was a man whose character and reputation was such as to convince Captain Leary of his fitness to remain.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Agrees to the Will.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Alice Gwyne Vanderbilt, widow of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, filed a waiver of citation and gave formal consent to the admission of her husband's will to probate.

FRIARS ORDERED FROM GUAM.

Captain Leary Would Allow Only One to Remain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The navy department received a report from Captain Leary, the naval governor of the island of Guam, in the La Irones. The president himself has read the report.

Captain Leary soon learned that his authority as governor was being subverted and every one of the measures of reform which he proposed was being defeated by the hostile influence of the friars. He ordered them out of the island, saying he would give them transportation.

That left but one friar on the island and he was a man whose character and reputation was such as to convince Captain Leary of his fitness to remain.

British Commander Reaches South Africa.

BOERS' ATTACK ON LADYSMITH.

Shelled the Place, but a Naval Reinforcement Silenced Their Battery With Their Guns—Smith's Forces Drove the Boers Back Several Miles.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Cape Town announced the arrival in Table Bay of the Dunottar Castle, with General Sir Redvers Buller and his staff. They will meet with a tremendous ovation in Cape Town.

It is reported from Pretoria that 200 of the British wounded from Dundee have arrived there and have been furnished accommodation in the state school building.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from General Buller read in part as follows: "I employed all the troops here except the obligatory garrison before the crucifixion, but were repulsed, leaving six dead on the field, and it was believed that many of the attacking party were wounded. The dispatch adds that Saturday morning Colonel Baden-Powell asked for an armistice in order to bury the dead. General Cronje consented to this, the Boers assisting in placing the dead in the wagon returning to Mafeking.

PLACED IN THE TOMB.

Remains of General Henry Rest Near Those of His Old Chief—President at the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—General Guy V. Henry was given military burial at Arlington, his grave being close to the Temple of Fame and close to that of his old commander, General Crook. The president and secretary of war and other members of the cabinet attended the services both at the church and at the cemetery. The military escort consisted of a battery of artillery, Troop I of the Third cavalry, now stationed at Fort Myer, where General Henry was once in command, and the members of the Guy V. Henry garrison, a colored veterans' association comprising many of the old troopers of the Tenth cavalry who served under Henry in the west.

St. John's church, where the first service was held, was crowded and the chancel was filled with flowers, conspicuous among them was a great white wreath from the executive mansion. The president and Secretary Root came together to the church. There were present also Secretary Hay, Assistant Postmaster General Heath, Adjutant General Corbin, General Fitzhugh Lee and many other of General Henry's old friends in the service. The pallbearers were General J. M. Wilson, chief of engineers; Judge Advocate General Lieber, General A. W. Greely, chief signal officer, and Generals Frank, Rugles and Bernard.

A FERRYBOAT CUT IN TWO IN HARBOR.

A Disastrous Collision at New York. Number of Lives May Be Lost. One Body Found.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Pennsylvania ferryboat Chicago, plying between Jersey City and New York, was cut in two by the steamer City of Augusta of the Old Dominion steamship line, at 12:35 this morning on the New York side of North river. She went down in seven or eight minutes. There were between 30 and 40 people aboard, four being women. It is supposed that several persons were drowned, though there is no positive proof of this assertion.

In spite of the severity of the accident there was no panic.

The steamboat squad a few minutes before 2 o'clock found a body, which is supposed, is that of one of the passengers on the ferryboat, drowned as the result of the collision.

Mr. H. W. Bible of this city jumped overboard with a life preserver. He saw four women struggling in the water near him, but was unable to help them. He was picked up by a lifeboat and taken ashore.

Searchlight was used in the work of rescue. A number of tugs and some boats were secured. Everything was done possible under the circumstances to pick up persons from the water. One boat brought in six men, two women and a child.

THE REBELS SCATTERED

Bell's Regiment Had Encounters With Them.

LAWTON THE NIGHT GENERAL.

Aguinaldo's Sobriquet For the American. Has High Opinion of Our Soldiers. Refused to Surrender and Tilted Sick Spaniards—Americans Well Treated.

MANILA, Oct. 31.—Three companies of Colonel Bell's regiment had two encounters with the insurgents near Labam and scattered them. The insurgents left four officers and eight men dead on the field and the Americans captured three prisoners and several guns. On the American side, one man was killed and two officers and six men were wounded.

Captain French took a reconnoitering party beyond Labam, after he had met the enemy and was reinforced by Major Bishop with two companies. The insurgents brought up cavalry reinforcements and there was a second fight, during which their leader, Major Salvador, was killed and many were wounded and carried away.

Colonel Bell had been given a free hand around Bacolor. He had about 60 mounted men scouring the country daily and they were killing many Filipinos in skirmishes.

The Spanish commission, which entered the insurgent lines a month ago with money to relieve the wants of several thousand military and civil Spanish prisoners, returned to Manila. The commissioners reported that they spent most of the time in Tarlac and vicinity, where there were some 200 sick Spaniards in the hospital. The Filipinos ill-treated and ill-fed them, refusing to surrender them, as well as the other Spanish prisoners, in the hope of compelling Spain to recognize the independence of the islands.

There were 14 American prisoners, they said, all of whom were well treated. Lieutenant S. C. Gilmore of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who fell into the hands of the insurgents at Baler, on the east coast of Luzon last April, where the Yorktown had gone on a special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison, was at Binzot.

The commissioners brought a letter to General Otis from a relative of the murdered Filipino General Luna, who wished to avenge the assassination by Aguinaldo's officers, and who asked a personal interview with the military governor.

According to the commissioners' statement, Aguinaldo, who was at Tarlac with about 3,000 troops, wished to continue the war, although he had a high opinion of the American officers and soldiers. General Lawton he called "El General de la Noche" (the night general), because that commander had attacked him so often in the darkness that he never knew when to look for him.

Aguinaldo was said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition and he was able to get plenty of rice from the northern provinces.

With the Spanish commissioners came a large number of women, the families of eight prominent officers of the Filipino army, who recently applied to General Otis for permission to send their families to Manila. Upon the receipt of the military governor's reply, the nature of which had not been disclosed, the women and children started under escort from Tarlac for the American lines. When they arrived General MacArthur compelled them to halt about a mile beyond our outposts, where they were to remain while their credentials were being examined.

TRAIN WRECKED IN THE FOG.

Fireman Killed on Pittsburg and Western—Engineer Hurt.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Oct. 31.—The Chicago express on the Pittsburg and Western railroad was wrecked in the darkness and fog at Carbon station, seven miles west of here. The fireman was killed and the engineer was injured. Several passengers were also injured, but not seriously. The casualties follow:

George Holliday, fireman, killed by the engine falling on him. He was single and resided at Bennett, Pa.

George Cupps, engineer, cut and bruised, condition not serious, was removed to the Allegheny General hospital. He is married and lives at Mars, Pa.

At Carbon station are a number of switches which run to West New Castle junction. A westbound coal train was halted on the main track at this point for the Chicago express to pass. After the switches had been turned, the passenger was given signals of a clear track by way of a side track around the freight train. The engineer put on steam and the locomotive was soon at a good speed. It dashed on the side track and into an open switch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Philippine commission held its first meeting at the quarters selected for them in the Arlington. Prof. Schurman on reaching Washington paid an early call at the state department, after which he went to the commission's rooms, where Admiral Dewey and Colonel Denby were waiting.

It was announced before the meeting that all the sessions would be secret and that none of the deliberations would be made public until the commission had finished its labors. Colonel Denby said that no program had been arranged and that it was impossible to say even what general course would be followed till after the commissioners had discussed the matter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Chief of Detectives Collier received a telegram from Baltimore stating that Walter L. Farnsworth, the confessed bigamist now in jail here, and who is said to have had 42 wives, is wanted in that city for marrying four women under the name of Sterling Orville Thomas. The prisoner does not deny this is his real name. Marie Larson, 718 Sixth street, Philadelphia, also thinks she is one of Farnsworth's wives, and has written Captain Collier to send her a picture of the bigamist.

A LONG ELECTRIC LINE

Plans to Unite Cleveland and Pittsburg.

CAPITALISTS WORK ON THE SCHEME

Said to Desire to Make Cleveland Pivotal Point of Greatest Suburban Electric System in World—To Inspect Available Lines.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—Certain eastern and Ohio capitalists are said to be desirous of making Cleveland the pivotal point of the greatest suburban electric railway system in the world. About 25 Philadelphia and other capitalists are expected in Cleveland today to interview representatives of street railway companies and members of the chamber of commerce. The visitors will probably remain in the city for a few days, and will make tours of inspection over the various suburban lines.

In a few weeks they have visited Niles, Youngstown, Warren and other places in the northeastern section of the state, inspecting various suburban lines. Steps have already been taken toward the establishment of the new system, about 250 miles of right of way having been secured in the northeastern section of the state. Franchises have already been secured for the new road at Burton, Jefferson and Andover. In order to facilitate the work a corporation, known as the Burton, Jefferson and Andover Electric Railway company, has been formed.

The officers are: Eugene Rawdon, president; W. H. Dodge, vice president; A. H. Lindsley, treasurer, and E. H. Green, secretary. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the suburban line between Warren and Youngstown.

Representatives of the eastern investors are at work between Youngstown and Pittsburg and within a few years Cleveland and Pittsburg will be the terminals of the largest electric railway system in the country. At present, however, it is proposed to start with Cleveland as the basic point, and build out in an easterly and southeasterly direction.

works. I sent a mountain battery, the Royal Irish Fusiliers and the Gloucesters to take up a position on the hills, to clear my left flank. During some night firing the battery mules stampeded with some of the guns, which, however, I hope to recover. These two battalions have not yet returned, but are expected.

"I detailed two brigade divisions of field artillery and five battalions of infantry, aided by cavalry, under General French, to attack a position upon which the enemy counted guns. We found this position evacuated, but our force was attacked with considerable vigor by what I believe were General Joubert's troops. They had many guns and showed in great numbers. Our troops were all in action and we pushed the enemy back several miles, but did not succeed in reaching his laager. Our losses are estimated at between 80 and 100, but those of the enemy must have been much greater, the fire of our guns appearing very effective.

"After being in action several hours I withdrew the troops and they returned unmolested to their cantonments. The enemy are in great numbers and their guns range further than our field guns. I now have some naval guns which have temporarily silenced and, I hope, will permanently dominate the enemy's best guns, with which he has been bombarding the town at a range of over 6,000 yards."

A war office dispatch from Cape Town, dated Oct. 26, said: "An armored train under Llewellyn, got within 1,000 yards of the Boer laager, three miles south of Crocodile Poort. The Boers had driven in their horses on the approach of the train. Three Maxim bets were discharged into the Boers, who must have had considerable loss. They then returned ten shots with no effect. Colonel Plumer's outposts has had several skirmishes on the Crocodile river."

From later advices it was learned that the Llewellyn train returned to Mafeking, 100 miles north of Mafeking. Llewellyn reported all quiet.

LORENZO MARQUES, Delagoa Bay, Oct. 31.—A dispatch received here from Pretoria, under date of Oct. 28, said: General Cronje, the Boer commander, announced that the British garrison at Mafeking made a bayonet attack on Commandant Louw's laager, near

The board of education met in regular session last evening, Messrs. Norris and Murphy being absent. The meeting lasted but 28 minutes.

Clerk Hill, as chairman of the committee to purchase desks, reported he had not purchased any, as had been his intention. All correspondence to the several desk firms had been returned to him through the agent of the American School Furniture company. The various letters were read to the board. At this point Mr. Williams came in and the clerk gave him the letters.

"I have heard of this matter today. It is very thin, and it seems to me that there is something radically wrong. I do not believe that we are tied up by the school furniture company, as the case seems. We will not need these desks until about January, and there would be no harm in waiting for two weeks at least."

The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Under any other circumstances we would have plenty of room in our stores, but under existing circumstances we will be overcrowded, and must do something to make room for the goods that we have and the goods we are receiving every week, and in order to do so we are selling all goods in clothing and gents' furnishing goods at the old prices, and in many instances for less.

Owing to our big outlet for gents' furnishing goods, we are enabled to buy our goods direct from the mills in case lots. We therefore can save you the middleman's profit in both your clothing and gents' furnishing goods. We haven't the space to quote you prices; in fact it would take a whole book to tell you the good things we have for you.

We extend you an invitation to call and see us when buying your fall clothing and gents' furnishing goods, and save money. Strictly one price to all.

Cleanliness Is Akin to Godliness.
Testimony of a Physician.

There is a great scare in East Liverpool in consequence of a skin disease
which has made its appearance, and the statement is made by some that it is what is commonly known as "barber's itch." I have consulted prominent physicians of this city, and they have
assured me that the affection is epidemic
all over the country, affecting alike men
women and children, and is a germ disease. Some physicians assert that it is contagious, while others state that it is not. A pound of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. In order to be on the safe side, I desire to announce that,
hereafter, I shall conduct my shop on a
strictly antiseptic plan, thoroughly dis-
infecting razors before and after shaving. Further, I shall discard the use of the sponge altogether, using clean
towels in each and every instance,
thereby avoiding any possible chance of
infection. Respectfully,

OVER $50,000 STOLEN.

A Man Robbed on a St. Louis Street
Car in Daylight on Busy
Street.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Robert B. Jennings, secretary and treasurer of the
Broadway cable line, was robbed of $1,043 in cash and $18,750 in checks
while standing on the rear platform of a platform of a Broadway car at Broadway and Washington avenue.

The robbery was committed in broad daylight in one of the busiest corners of
St. Louis.

Mr. Jennings had just drawn the money from the bank, intending to take it to the railroad company's offices on
North Broadway to pay off the hands.
The robbers evidently knew he had drawn the money from the bank.

Just as Mr. Jennings was getting on the car two men approached and one of them jostled up against him. This was done to attract his attention away from the other man, who picked his pocket
while the street railroad official turned to see who jostled him. Mr. Jennings discovered he had been robbed shortly after it occurred, but the men had in the meantime made their escape.

Payment on the checks, which were drawn on the Boatmen's bank, has been stopped by the railroad company.

Mr. Jennings was robbed of a large amount several years ago under somewhat similar circumstances. Two men boarded a Broadway car and snatched up a satchel he had at his feet containing $4,000. The robbers were captured
and sent to the penitentiary.

complicated with inflammation of the stomach. Mr. Hobart has not been able to attend to his private affairs for

CAPE NOME UNHEALTHY,

Some Goldseekers Sick—Passengers Estimated Worth Over $2,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The steamer
Bertha arrived here from St. Michael with 375 passengers, most from the Cape Nome district. The aggregate wealth of the Bertha's passengers was placed at over $2,000,000. The miners said the district was far richer than the Klondike, though not so healthy. The sanitary conditions were reported to be worse than at Dawson.

The Bertha brought down the body
of Fred Cullin, who committed suicide
at Cape Nome, on account of sickness.
He had been successful.

Several of the Bertha's passengers
were suffering from typhoid-pneumonia
and were removed to hospitals on stretchers.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Cleanliness Is Akin to Godliness.
Testimony of a Physician.

There is a great scare in East Liverpool in consequence of a skin disease
which has made its appearance, and the
statement is made by some that it is
what is commonly known as "barber's itch." I have consulted prominent physicians of this city, and they have
assured me that the affection is epidemic
all over the country, affecting alike men
women and children, and is a germ
disease. Some physicians assert that it
is contagious, while others state that it is not. A pound of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. In order to be on the safe side, I desire to announce that,
hereafter, I shall conduct my shop on a
strictly antiseptic plan, thoroughly dis-
infecting razors before and after shav-
ing. Further, I shall discard the use of the sponge altogether, using clean
towels in each and every instance,
thereby avoiding any possible chance of
infection. Respectfully,

* FRED FURRER.

OVER $50,000 STOLEN.

A Man Robbed on a St. Louis Street
Car In Daylight on Busy
Street.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Robert B. Jennings, secretary and treasurer of the
Broadway cable line, was robbed of
$1,043 in cash and $18,750 in checks
while standing on the rear platform of
a platform of a Broadway car at Broadway and Washington avenue.

The robbery was committed in broad
daylight in one of the busiest corners of
St. Louis.

Mr. Jennings had just drawn the
money from the bank, intending to take
it to the railroad company's offices on
North Broadway to pay off the hands.
The robbers evidently knew he had
drawn the money from the bank.

Just as Mr. Jennings was getting on
the car two men approached and one of them jostled him against him. This was done to attract his attention away from
the other man, who picked his pocket
while the street railroad official turned
to see who jostled him. Mr. Jennings
discovered he had been robbed shortly
after it occurred, but the men had in
the meantime made their escape.

Payment on the checks, which were drawn on the Boatmen's bank, has been stopped by the railroad company.

Mr. Jennings was robbed of a large amount several years ago under somewhat similar circumstances. Two men
boarded a Broadway car and snatched
up a satchel he had at his feet containing $4,000. The robbers were captured
and sent to the penitentiary.

HOBART BELIEVED

TO BE NEAR DEATH.

Persons Summoned to His Bedside Early
This Morning—Suffered a Re-lapse Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Word reaches here from Paterson, N. J., that about 1:05 a. m., Dr. Newton, his wife and Hobart A. Tuttle were summoned to the residence of Vice President Hobart.
The summoning is not regarded as a favorable indication.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Vice President Hobart, who has been ill for weeks at his home in Paterson, N. J., suffered a relapse. He had a succession of choking spells, resulting from an imperfect action of the heart, an old affliction, complicated with inflammation of the stomach. Mr. Hobart has not been able to attend to his private affairs for the past two or three days and an intimate friend has been given power of attorney to sign checks and attend to other matters of that character.

One of the physicians in attendance said that while the condition of Mr.

ceding.

CAPE NOME UNHEALTHY,

Some Goldseekers Sick—Passengers Estimated Worth Over $2,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The steamer
Bertha arrived here from St. Michael with 375 passengers, most from the Cape Nome district. The aggregate
wealth of the Bertha's passengers was placed at over $2,000,000. The miners
said the district was far richer than the Klondike, though not so healthy. The sanitary conditions were reported to be
worse than at Dawson.

The Bertha brought down the body
of Fred Cullin, who committed suicide
at Cape Nome, on account of sickness.
He had been successful.

Several of the Bertha's passengers
were suffering from typhoid pneumonia
and were removed to hospitals on stretchers.

ance in the state campaign. A vote in East Liverpool for Geo. K. Nash and the Republican state ticket will count as much in the returns as a vote in Hamilton county. The county ticket will be elected by a safe and handsome majority but there is no such assurance for the state ticket. Every vote should be cast; they may all be needed.

THE SPEAKER'S OPINION.

Congressman D. B. Henderson, the next speaker of the national house of representatives, says: "A big Republican majority in Ohio will show the satisfaction of the people with the administration and with conditions which have brought so much prosperity to the land and so much happiness to the country's homes."

JONES AND HIS VOTE.

The Toledo Blade, published in the home city of Mayor Sam Jones, says he "will probably poll from 75,000 to 100,000 votes in Ohio this fall. The bulk of this will be in the cities. The seat of his greatest strength does not appear to be Toledo, but Cleveland—the result largely of the big street railway strike last summer. He has no following among the farmers."

This estimate does not seem too large in view of the fact that Coxey received 52,000 votes in Ohio in 1895. If Jones gets anywhere near 100,000 votes, or even 75,000, it will mean that Nash will have fifty to seventy-five thousand more votes to get, for fully that proportion of Jones' vote is expected to come from people who have hitherto most frequently voted the Republican ticket. East Liverpool ought to make good this loss by a record breaking vote for the Republican ticket.

DO THEY OWN YOURS?

Own your what? Your vote, of course. This is the boast of the whisky ring of East Liverpool. They make boast that they can and will control the necessary number of votes to rule this city. They claim that the political parties are afraid of them and dare not disobey them. Can this be true? They claim that they will ruin a business man if he bids them defiance, and will drive him out of the city. Can this be true? God pity a city where exist such poltroons and cowards. We do not believe that this is true of East Liverpool. We believe that there are business men in this city who will dare ring out defiance to these agents of the devil. We believe that a great many of our citizens will dare do the same noble thing. We believe that the saloons could be voted out of this city at the present time, if submitted to the popular vote of "SALOONS OR NO SALOONS;" and woe be to the councilmen who would dare to attempt to thwart the will of the sovereign people, as a despotic council in this city did a few years ago, the members who did it being in the employ and pay of the whisky ring, as per the evidence of their ballots; a shameless proceeding; an outrage against all justice and law; a criminal thing; an action which should for ever bar such men from holding office hereafter. Do they own yours?

SPIT ON HIM.

Spit on Him by the Force of the Law With a $5 Bill.

There is an ordinance against spitting on the floors of street cars. As with many other ordinances of the city, it is not enforced. It should be, in the name of common decency and cleanliness. A lady patron of our street railway says: "I am a regular patron of the street railway. The spitting habit continues to contaminate and render disgusting and filthy the floors of our street cars. Some men pay no attention to the new law, but seem to glory in defying it and in acting like full-fledged bristle raisers. Manager L. W. Healy and Superintendent James Reed will confer a great favor on lady patrons if these officials should issue an order requiring motor-men and conductors to report offenders against the street car ordinance. Mayor Bough and his officials will win many friends if they arrest a few of the law-breakers and put the full fine and costs against them."

SURPRISED.

Several Lady Friends Called on Mrs. George Matheny Last Night.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gray Bradshaw avenue, last evening was the scene of a very pleasant party. Mrs. George Matheny, of Martin's Ferry, has been visiting friends in the city for several days, and it was decided to give a surprise party in her honor. She was very much surprised and pleased when 16 of her lady friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Gray, and they all spent a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served.

Thomas Buckley and Thos. F. Manley File a Petition Against Richard Barlow and Others—Attachment Entered Against Two Lots In This City to Secure a Note.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—[Special].—Thomas Buckley and Thomas F. Manley, as executors of the will of Maria Manley, of East Liverpool, have filed a petition against Richard Barlow and wife Sarah, Anna E. Smith and W. L. Smith. Plaintiffs say that by endorsement their decedent became the owner of a note for $1,900, executed in 1890 by Richard Barlow to William Wildblood; further, that in 1891 Richard Barlow transferred lot 410 and a part of lot 10 in East Liverpool to his wife, Sarah Barlow, without any consideration whatever and with intent to hinder and defraud his creditors; and in 1894 Sarah and Richard Barlow transferred said lot 410 to their daughter, Anna E. Smith, wife of the defendant, W. L. Smith, without any valuable consideration. Barlow has no other property on which the amount now due on the note can be collected. Plaintiff asked that both transfers be set aside. Lot 413 is the lot in the Diamond on which is located the storeroom lately occupied by Steinfield & Viney. The Commercial hotel is located on the other piece of land. Under an order of attachment the real estate was attached and appraised at $11,000, the former piece at $7,000 and the latter at $4,000.

Own your what? Your vote, of course. This is the boast of the whisky ring of East Liverpool. They make boast that they can and will control the necessary number of votes to rule this city. They claim that the political parties are afraid of them and dare not disobey them. Can this be true? We do not believe that this is true of East Liverpool. We believe that there are business men in this city who will dare ring out defiance to these agents of the devil. We believe that a great many of our citizens will dare do the same noble thing. We believe that the saloons could be voted out of this city at the present time, if submitted to the popular vote of "SALOONS OR NO SALOONS;" and woe be to the councilmen who would dare to attempt to thwart the will of the sovereign people, as a despotic council in this city did a few years ago, the members who did it being in the employ and pay of the whisky ring, as per the evidence of their ballots; a shameless proceeding; an outrage against all justice and law; a criminal thing; an action which should for ever bar such men from holding office hereafter. Thomas Buckley and Thos. F. Manley File a Petition Against Richard Barlow and Others--Attachment Entered Against Two Lots In This City to Secure a Note.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—[Special].—Thomas Buckley and Thomas F. Manley, as executors of the will of Maria Manley, of East Liverpool, have filed a petition against Richard Barlow and wife Sarah. Anna E. Smith and W. L. Smith. Plaintiffs say that by endorsement their decedent became the owner of a note for $1,900, executed in 1890 by Richard Barlow to William Wildblood; further, that in 1891 Richard Barlow transferred lot 410 and a part of lot 10 in East Liverpool to his wife, Sarah Barlow, without any consideration whatever and with intent to hinder and defraud his creditors; and in 1894 Sarah and Richard Barlow transferred said lot 410 to their daughter, Anna E. Smith, wife of the defendant, W. L. Smith, without any valuable consideration. Barlow has no other property on which the amount now due on the note can be collected. Plaintiff asked that both transfers be set aside. Lot 413 is the lot in the Diamond on which is located the storeroom lately occupied by Stemfield & Viney. The Commercial hotel is located on the other piece of land. Under an order of attachment the real estate was attached and appraised at $11,000, the former piece at $7,000 and the latter at $4,000.

TWO OF THEM WERE FINED

But the Others Are Awaiting Hearings. One Man Whipped His Wife and Another Got Drunk--Torrance Acted the Part of a Good Samaritan.

Mayor Bough had several cases before him this morning, but did not dispose of all of them.

Last night Robert Wilson was near the First M. E. church on Fifth street and was making a terrible noise, yelling and singing at the top of his voice. Woods took him to city hall and the mayor fined him $9.60. He didn't have the cash and is still in jail.

James Hanlon got helplessly drunk last night and when Officer Mahony found him he was asleep on the sidewalk on Market street. Hanlon objected to being awakened but after the officer explained the matter to him it was all right and he was taken to city hall and given a soft bed. He slept well and this morning paid the mayor $7.60 and went home.

Joseph Furnival last night loaded up on bad whisky and finally arrived at the conclusion that he was the "whole thing." He went to his home this morning and declared himself to his wife. He began to abuse her but Officer Woods put a stop to it by arriving on the scene. Furnival was taken to jail where he is now awaiting a hearing, the mayor giving him time to sober up. His wife says she will appear against him.

This morning an old drunken man was hanging against a fence on East Market street and Officers McDonald and Woods decided they would walk him to city hall and not call the patrol. The man didn't like the walk, but he was arrested and was finally landed in the city jail. He refused to tell his name, but will get a hearing when he sobers up.

David C. Torrance, who lives at East End, Pittsburg, was arrested last night by Officer Whan. It was thought he might be implicated in the Theodore Petty and David Hewitt fight. Torrance when called before the mayor said he was not in the fight, but had started down street with one of the parties and had gone back to pick up his companion's bat. He said he didn't know much about the fight and was entirely innocent. The mayor decided that Torrance was telling a true story and he was released.

The Trouble Has Not Been Settled and

PROSPECTS ARE UNFAVORABLE

For an Early Adjustment of the Affair.—The Manufacturers Met and Decided to Not Accede to the Demands—Some Potteries Were Shut Down and More will Follow—Both Sides are Meeting this Afternoon.

The strike of the biscuit warehouse girls is still on and has assumed large proportions, the girls in all the potteries being out. Some of the potteries shut down this morning and others will stop work this evening. It is reported that every pottery in the city will be shut down by Thursday unless the strike is settled.

The Strikers' Meeting.

The girls met yesterday afternoon in Ferguson & Hill hall and told their grievances to President Hughes of the Brotherhood. There was a large attendance at the session, and nearly every pottery in the city was represented. President Hughes told the strikers it would have been better had they given the manufacturers some notice of their intention to ask for more money before they struck. He advised them to or-

He was seen at noon prior to his departure for the East but would not talk of his visit.

The potters who were seen today stated Mr. Davis attempted to form a trust here several months ago, but was unsuccessful in his work.

Hewitt, with several friends, went to the Keystone saloon on Market street at 8 o'clock last night but were ejected 30 minutes later on account of their actions. When the men neared Second street they commenced a quarrel. One of the number pulled a razor from his pocket and cut Hewitt on the nose, lower lip, chin, right shoulder and left thigh. Do Not Meet With a Very Warm Reception In This City.

For several days two men have been selling jewelry at the intersection of Sixth street and Mulberry alley. Last evening a large crowd gathered around the first stand and a wild rush was started. The stand upset and the jewelry scattered. About half of it was lost. The men gathered up their stock and started to leave but they had their troubles. One of them was hit on the head with a board and they both took refuge in a store until a street car arrived when they went to the hotel.

The strike of the biscuit warehouse girls is still on and has assumed large proportions, the girls in all the potteries being out. Some of the potteries shut down this morning and others will stop work this evening. It is reported that every pottery in the city will be shut down by Thursday unless the strike is settled.

The Strikers' Meeting.

The girls met yesterday afternoon in Ferguson & Hill hall and told their grievances to President Hughes of the Brotherhood. There was a large attendance at the session, and nearly every pottery in the city was represented. President Hughes told the strikers it would have been better had they given the manufacturers some notice of their intention to ask for more money before they struck. He advised them to or-

ANOTHER TRUST TALE.

Promoter Joseph T. Davis In Town Considering How to Form a Combine.

During the past few days Joseph T. Davis, of New York, has been in the city talking to the various potteries relative to organizing a trust. Mr. Davis claims to have a plan entirely foreign to any of those presented by other concerns which attempted to organize a combination among the potteries. He was seen at noon prior to his departure for the East but would not talk of his visit.

The potters who were seen today stated Mr. Davis attempted to form a trust here several months ago, but was unsuccessful in his work.

David Hewitt, of Pittsburg, employed by Contractor McNally, was severely cut last evening with a razor while fighting on lower Market street.

Hewitt, with several friends, went to the Keystone saloon on Market street at 8 o'clock last night but were ejected 30 minutes later on account of their actions. When the men neared Second street they commenced a quarrel. One of the number pulled a razor from his pocket and cut Hewitt on the nose, lower lip, chin, right shoulder and left thigh. The man who did the cutting threw his razor away and made his escape. Hewitt was taken to the office of a physician where his injuries were dressed. This morning he drew $15 from a building and loan association and was to go to Pittsburg this afternoon.

THE MAYOR WAS BUSY

Several Offenders Faced Him This Morning.

TWO OF THEM WERE FINED

But the Others Are Awaiting Hearings. One Man Whipped His Wife and Another Got Drunk--Torrance Acted the Part of a Good Samaritan.

Mayor Bough had several cases before him this morning, but did not dispose of all of them.

Last night Robert Wilson was near the First M. E. church on Fifth street and was making a terrible noise, yelling and singing at the top of his voice. Woods took him to city hall and the mayor fined him $9.60. He didn't have the cash and is still in jail.

James Hanlon got helplessly drunk last night and when Officer Mahony found him he was asleep on the sidewalk on Market street. Hanlon objected to being awakened but after the officer explained the matter to him it was all right and he was taken to city hall and given a soft bed. He slept well and this morning paid the mayor $7.60 and went home.

Joseph Furnival last night loaded up on bad whisky and finally arrived at the conclusion that he was the "whole thing." He went to his home this morning and declared himself to his wife. He began to abuse her but Officer Woods put a stop to it by arriving on the scene. Furnival was taken to jail where he is now awaiting a hearing, the mayor giving him time to sober up. His wife says she will appear against him.

This morning an old drunken man was hanging against a fence on East Market street and Officers McDonald and Woods decided they would walk him to city hall and not call the patrol. The man didn't like the walk, but he was arrested and was finally landed in the city jail. He refused to tell his name, but will get a hearing when he sobers up.

David C. Torrance, who lives at East End, Pittsburg, was arrested last night by Officer Whan. It was thought he might be implicated in the Theodore Petty and David Hewitt fight. Torrance when called before the mayor said he was not in the fight, but had started down street with one of the parties and had gone back to pick up his companion's hat. He said he didn't know much about the fight and was entirely innocent. The mayor decided that Torrance was telling a true story and he was released.

A portion of the Sheridan avenue kids who have been annoying the school on that thoroughfare called on the Mayor last evening and there are more to follow.

HALLOWEEN.

The Police Will See That Good Order is Kept This Evening.

The mayor and police officers are making preparations for Halloween this evening and there will be an extra force. They are determined there shall be no depredations and intend to arrest all boys who are found in mischief. There has been so many complaints made to the mayor that he deems this step necessary and will see that every law is strictly enforced.

TO MR. JONES.

Chairman Dick Indites a Telling Letter.

PARTIES WERE GOOD ENOUGH

For Mr. Jones as Long as They Were Willing to Run Him For Office.

WHEN HE WAS TURNED DOWN

He Started a Party In Which "Jones Was the Whole Thing."

THE PARTIES ARE A NECESSITY

In a Republican Form of Government, They Can Not Exist In an Absolute Monarchy—Their Work as Legitimate as That of Any Other Organization For a Public Purpose.

A few days ago Samuel M. Jones wrote a letter to Chairman Dick of the Republican state committee, which he discourteously gave out to the press before it had time to reach Colonel Dick in the course of the mails. The letter was in reply to the circular request sent out by the Republican state committee, asking for contributions to the party cause. In his reply Mr. Jones took occasion to indulge in his usualrodomontade about political parties, and signed himself "President of the Acme Sucker Rod Co." (to which the circular had been sent), and "Non-Partisan candidate for Governor."

In reply, Chairman Dick sent the following keen epistle puncturing the peculiar claims of Mr. Jones in regard to parties:

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.
Hon. Samuel M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Co., Toledo, O.:

My Dear Sir—Replying to your letter of recent date, which you took the liberty to give to the press before I had received it through the mail, I desire to call your attention to certain statements in my letter, to which you do not find objection, viz:

First—"It is scarcely necessary to call your attention to the prosperity that is apparent everywhere in all lines of trade. The situation throughout the United States, from a business standpoint, was never better." You acknowledge by your silence that this statement is true.

Second—"What we want is a continuance of these conditions." You do not object, as president of the Acme sucker company, to "A continuance of these conditions." Republican prosperity seems to be a good thing, even for the president of the Acme Sucker Rod company.

Third—"A change in the administration in Ohio this year would be accepted as the precursor of a change in the national administration in 1900. Such a change, we believe, would be disastrous, as it would completely unsettle the business interests of the country." The people are not deceived, and, by your silence you admit that a change in the administration "would completely unsettle the business interests of the country"; but, entrenched as you are, in a monopoly which controls an article of necessity, possibly you may not care if a panic should come. Secure in your patent, YOU can reap a rich harvest, while the poor suffer.

The part of my letter to which you raise objection is the appeal for contributions to defray the legitimate expenses of the campaign. I have no apology to offer for asking contributions from the business public generally, to which we have directed this appeal, and I am not ashamed of the fact that we are under the necessity of soliciting from the many rather than relying on the wealth of the one rich man, who owns, dictates and absolutely controls his party—a further evidence that the Republican party is the party of the people.

You say that "A government of the people can never be brought about while government by parties remains," and that you must decline to assist in

"forwarding a fraudulent, unscientific and wicked political system." Such a statement from one who claims to represent the people is astounding. In absolute monarchies there are no political parties—republics can not exist without them. As nations progress towards greater liberty, parties become a necessary part of their political systems, and are the legitimate channels through which the people register their verdict upon all great political questions. In order to sustain political parties, contributions are solicited to disseminate their principles. For over a century of American history, voluntary contribution, like that proposed in our circular letter, has been the method of sustaining political life. A contribution to disseminate and defend the principles of the party is as honorable as a contribution to any other public purpose.

In conducting your campaign you declare "no one has been or will be asked to contribute a dollar." Do you distribute the literature of your peculiar teachings free? Who pays the printing bills, postage and other expenses? Who pays the hotel and railroad bills of your speakers? Who pays the numerous agents that are working for you throughout the state? Have you not an office in Toledo employing a large number of clerks engaged in conducting your campaign? Who pays their salaries? Did you not receive contributions to assist in your nomination as mayor of Toledo? Did you not willingly receive contributions from outside sources to aid in your election? It is a significant fact that the Republican candidate for governor does not belong to the so-called privileged class, and therefore can not spend unlimited sums to secure his election.

Is it less than a bold assumption on your part that you should circulate a petition, secure signatures thereto, adopt a platform and nominate yourself for the high office of governor of the state? It is without parallel in American history. The people of Ohio did not assemble in convention and ask you to become their governor. You forced yourself upon the people and monopolized the management of your campaign. You are the party, candidate, committee, manager and exchequer; indeed you assume that "Jones is the whole thing."

It is your boast that you are a non-partisan candidate, but the facts are, the moment you complied with the law in securing the requisite number of signatures to your petition, and it was approved by the secretary of state, the movement you represent was recognized in the eyes of the law as a political party, and in spite of your pretense to being a non-partisan candidate, you are, after all, a partisan in the fullest sense of the word.

If elected governor of the state, without a legislature in sympathy with your vagaries, what single act of legislation could you secure, what one of your pet notions could be adopted? Your principal work of governor would be to dream of "reform" and write sounding phrases condemning existing institutions; while the legislature, in supreme indifference to your opinions, would enact such practical laws as conditions might demand.

Your sudden discovery of the giant evils of political party organizations seems strange. A political party organization was good enough for you three years ago. You found no fault with it then. It was good enough for you until March of this year, when you were defeated for renomination by the Republican party in Toledo. It was good enough for you up to June of this year, for you in various ways evinced a desire to secure the Republican nomination for governor. In your bitter disappointment you say that "party organizations are giant evils that have cursed the country for a century." Was the Republican party a "giant evil" when it nominated and elected you mayor of Toledo? Without that nomination and election, the country would probably never have heard of "Golden Rule Jones." You falsify history when you say this country has been cursed by political party organization. The past century of American history is the most glorious in the annals of time, and the brightest pages were written by the Republican party. Statesmen of all nations have gloried in our history, and it remains for you alone to make the discovery that our country has been "cursed" for the past century. By that charge you insult the wisest and best statesmen our country has produced. They have all been members of political party organization. Washington, Madison, Adams, Jefferson, Jackson, Webster, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield were enthusiastic in their devotion to party. Do you believe that these splendid heroes "cursed" this country by being strong party leaders? Do you not hesitate to enter the temple of liberty and defame every hero whose name is loved in American history?

In your letter you admit that you are one of the so-called "privileged class," for you subscribe your name "S. M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Company." This is a protected monopoly. By virtue of a privilege that you own exclusively, you exact from every family in the state of Ohio, who uses oil, an additional revenue. The poor people of the state have made you rich; yet you prate about and seek to make political capital of your love for the poor. Why not give up your protected patent, and thus practice and not simply preach your doctrine? No more transparent humbug was ever offered to the people than the peculiar notions which you are advocating in the present campaign.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES DICK, Chairman.

After all the oratory of the campaign has expended itself, when the voter enters the booth to mark his ballot, two facts should control him:

First, to provide well for wife and children I must vote to retain prosperity. This I shall do by voting the Republican ticket.

Second, as an American I must vote to maintain the sovereignty of the United States over every inch of territory that belongs to us.

This also I can do by voting the Republican ticket. Love of home and country shall inspire me to do my duty as an American citizen.

John R. McLean claims to have a "practical" plan for doing away with the trust evils. He would limit the amount of capital put into any corporation. But he does not say whether this limit should be $50,000, or $100,000, or $500,000, or $1,000,000, or $2,000,000, or $10,000,000. It is a queer statesman who loudly proclaims a "practical plan" for one day and then shuts up when the people are asking what he means.

WILD FAKES.

Democrats Planned Them For Closing Days of Campaign.

THE DEMOCRATIC AVERAGE

They Have Put Forth Over One Roarback Per Day.

A FEW WORDS OF WARNING

Republicans Must Be On Their Guard Against a Wild Saturnalia of Fakes, Roarbacks and Eleventh-Hour Lies of Every Sort and Description.

The last days of the campaign may be expected to be prolific of roarbacks and wild Democratic falsehoods.

From the opening of the campaign Mr. McLean's Enquirer has been prolific of fakes of every sort and description.

No appeal to prejudice, however gauzy, has been overlooked by them in their appeal to public prejudice and passion.

Up to date the number of false and malicious campaign tales which have been put out through Mr. McLean's Enquirer, and which have been promptly refuted in every case where they were worth paying attention to, has averaged more than one a day since the nomination of Mr. McLean.

With this record in the early days of the campaign, every Republican knows what to expect during the last week. There will be a wild flood of outrageous falsehoods and fakes.

Already reports have been received at Republican state headquarters of stories of the most malicious and villainous kind that are to be sprung during the closing days of the campaign, with the expectation that it will then be too late for the Republicans to deny them, and that some voters may be fooled into voting for McLean, free silver and a panic.

It is not necessary to outline the information already in the hands of the Republican campaign managers of the state campaign. It is sufficient to warn every Republican that during the closing days of the campaign he may expect a saturnalia of falsehood and vilification.

It will not be surprising if the famous Morey letter forgery of 1880 is surpassed in the daring desperation of the Enquirer gang.

Republicans are warned in advance, and will be prepared to discount every eleventh hour fake that may come.

The people are justified in doubting the sincerity of William J. Bryan in opposing the administration's policy in the Philippines when they remember that he advocated the ratification by the United States senate of the treaty with Spain which brought them to us. He realizes that the demand to withdraw our troops in the face of the enemy is very unpopular with the American people, and he now takes the inconsistent position of affirming that he was opposed in the first place to our accepting them from Spain. When he can satisfactorily explain how it is possible for a man to be for and against a proposition at the same time, it may be understood how he could be in favor of the treaty by which the legal title of the islands passed to us, and now oppose the administration for carrying into effect the terms of that treaty.

"You think you know all about women, don't you?" asked the newly married boarder.
"No," replied the savage bachelor, "and I am mighty glad I don't."—Indianapolis Journal.

THE NEWS REVIEW

TO MR. JONES.

Chairman Dick Indites a Telling Letter.

PARTIES WERE GOOD ENOUGH

For Mr. Jones as Long as They Were Willing to Run Him For Office.

WHEN HE WAS TURNED DOWN

He Started a Party In Which "Jones Was the Whole Thing."

THE PARTIES ARE A NECESSITY

In a Republican Form of Government, They Can Not Exist. In an Absolute Monarchy—Their Work as Legitimate as That of Any Other Organization For a Public Purpose.

A few days ago Samuel M. Jones wrote a letter to Chairman Dick of the Republican state committee, which he discourteously gave out to the press before it had time to reach Colonel Dick in the course of the mails. The letter was in reply to the circular request sent out by the Republican state committee, asking for contributions to the party cause. In his reply Mr. Jones took occasion to indulge in his usualrodomontade about political parties, and signed himself "President of the Acme Sucker Rod Co." (to which the circular had been sent), and "Non-Partisan candidate for Governor."

In reply, Chairman Dick sent the following keen epistle puncturing the peculiar claims of Mr. Jones in regard to parties:

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.
Hon. Samuel M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Co., Toledo, O.:
My Dear Sir—Replying to your letter of recent date, which you took the liberty to give to the press before I had received it through the mail, I desire to call your attention to certain statements in my letter, to which you do not find objection, viz:

First—"It is scarcely necessary to call your attention to the prosperity that is apparent everywhere in all lines of trade. The situation throughout the United States, from a business standpoint, was never better." You acknowledge by your silence that this statement is true.

Second—"What we want is a continuance of these conditions." You do not object, as president of the Acme sucker company, to "A continuance of these conditions." Republican prosperity seems to be a good thing, even for the president of the Acme Sucker Rod company.

Third—"A change in the administration in Ohio this year would be accepted as the precursor of a change in the national administration in 1900. Such a change, we believe, would be disastrous, as it would completely unsettle the business interests of the country." The people are not deceived, and, by your silence you admit that a change in the administration "would completely unsettle the business interests of the country"; but, intrenched as you are, in a monopoly which controls an article of necessity, possibly you may not care if a panic should come. Secure in your patent, YOU can reap a rich harvest, while the poor suffer.

The part of my letter to which you raise objection is the appeal for contributions to defray the legitimate expenses of the campaign. I have no apology to offer for asking contributions from the business public generally, to which we have directed this appeal, and I am not ashamed of the fact that we are under the necessity of soliciting from the many rather than relying on the wealth of the one rich man, who owns, dictates and absolutely controls his party—a further evidence that the Republican party is the party of the people.

"forwarding a fraudulent, unscientific and wicked political system." Such a statement from one who claims to represent the people is astounding. In absolute monarchies there are no political parties—republics can not exist without them. As nations progress towards greater liberty, parties become a necessary part of their political systems, and are the legitimate channels through which the people register their verdict upon all great political questions. In order to sustain political parties, contributions are solicited to disseminate their principles. For over a century of American history, voluntary contribution, like that proposed in our circular letter, has been the method of sustaining political life. A contribution to disseminate and defend the principles of the party is as honorable as a contribution to any other public purpose.

In conducting your campaign you declare "no one has been or will be asked to contribute a dollar." Do you distribute the literature of your peculiar teachings free? Who pays the printing bills, postage and other expenses? Who pays the hotel and railroad bills of your speakers? Who pays the numerous agents that are working for you throughout the state? Have you not an office in Toledo employing a large number of clerks engaged in conducting your campaign? Who pays their salaries? Did you not receive contributions to assist in your nomination as mayor of Toledo? Did you not willingly receive contributions from outside sources to aid in your election? It is a significant fact that the Republican candidate for governor does not belong to the so-called privileged class, and therefore can not spend unlimited sums to secure his election.

Is it less than a bold assumption on your part that you should circulate a petition, secure signatures thereto, adopt a platform and nominate yourself for the high office of governor of the state? It is without parallel in American history. The people of Ohio did not assemble in convention and ask you to become their governor. You forced yourself upon the people and monopolized the management of your campaign. You are the party, candidate, committee, manager and exchequer; indeed you assume that "Jones is the whole thing."

It is your boast that you are a non-partisan candidate, but the facts are, the moment you complied with the law in securing the requisite number of signatures to your petition, and it was approved by the secretary of state, the movement you represent was recognized in the eyes of the law as a political party, and in spite of your pretense to being a non-partisan candidate, you are, after all, a partisan in the fullest sense of the word.

If elected governor of the state, without a legislature in sympathy with your vagaries, what single act of legislation could you secure, what one of your pet notions could be adopted? Your principal work of governor would be to dream of "reform" and write sounding phrases condemning existing institutions; while the legislature, in supreme indifference to your opinions, would enact such practical laws as conditions might demand.

Your sudden discovery of the giant evils of political party organizations seems strange. A political party organization was good enough for you three years ago. You found no fault with it then. It was good enough for you until March of this year, when you were defeated for renomination by the Republican party in Toledo. It was good enough for you up to June of this year, for you in various ways evinced a desire to secure the Republican nomination for governor. In your bitter disappointment you say that "party organizations are giant evils that have cursed the country for a century." Was the Republican party a "giant evil" when it nominated and elected you mayor of Toledo? Without that nomination and election, the country would probably never have heard of "Golden Rule Jones." You falsify history when you say this country has been cursed by political party organization. The past century of American history is the most glorious in the annals of time, and the brightest pages were written by the Republican party. Statesmen of all nations have gloried in our history, and it remains for you alone to make the discovery that our country has been "cursed" for the past century. By that charge you insult the wisest and best statesmen our country has produced. They have all been members of political party organization. Washington, Madison, Adams, Jefferson, Jackson, Webster, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield were enthusiastic in their devotion to party. Do you believe that these splendid heroes "cursed" this country by being strong party leaders? Do you not hesitate to enter the temple of liberty and defame every hero whose name is loved in American history?

In your letter you admit that you are one of the so-called "privileged class," for you subscribe your name "S. M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Company." This is a protected monopoly. By virtue of a privilege that you own exclusively, you exact from every family in the state of Ohio, who uses oil, an additional revenue. The poor people of the state have made you rich; yet you prate about and seek to make political capital of your love for the poor. Why not give up your protected patent, and thus practice and not simply preach your doctrine? No more transparent humbug was ever offered to the people than the peculiar notions which you are advocating in the present campaign.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES DICK, Chairman.

DON'T TAKE IT FOR GRANTED

... CAN YOU AFFORD TO TAKE IT FOR GRANTED THAT THE: REPUBLICAN PARTY AND: PROSPERITY WILL WIN IN: OHIO THIS YEAR WITHOUT: YOUR VOTE? ... DO YOU TAKE THINGS FOR: GRANTED IN BUSINESS? ... THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN: THIS YEAR HAS A DIRECT: BEARING ON BUSINESS. ... REPUBLICAN SUCCESS BY AN: OVERWHELMING MAJORITY: WILL INDORSE M'KINLEY AND: PROSPERITY: A REDUCED RE: PUBLICATION MAJORITY IN OHIO, OR DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS, WOULD CHECK INVESTMENTS, UNSETTLE CONFIDENCE AND: THREATEN A PANIC. ... YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO: CHANCE THIS BY STAYING: AWAY FROM THE POLLS. ...

A THOUGHT FOR ELECTION DAY.

After all the oratory of the campaign has expended itself, when the voter enters the booth to mark his ballot, two facts should control him:

First, to provide well for wife and children I must vote to retain prosperity. This I shall do by voting the Republican ticket.

Second, as an American I must vote to maintain the sovereignty of the United States over every inch of territory that belongs to us.

This also I can do by voting the Republican ticket. Love of home and country shall inspire me to do my duty as an American citizen.

THE M'LEAN WOLVES.

... THE SAME DISREPUTABLE: GANG THAT DISGRACED OHIO: IN 1885 UNDER THE GENERAL: SHIP OF JOHN R. M'LEAN IS: AGAIN FOLLOWING THE SAME: LEADERSHIP. ... DO YOU WANT TO PULL: DOWN WISE REPUBLICAN: MANAGEMENT OF STATE AFFAIRS: FAIRS AND TURN LOOSE A SET: OF WOLVES ON THE PEOPLE? ... IF NOT, VOTE FOR GEORGE: K. NASH AND THE WHOLE RE: PUBLICATION TICKET. ...

John R. McLean claims to have a "practical" plan for doing away with the trust evils. He would limit the amount of capital put into any corporation. But he does not say whether this limit should be $50,000, or $100,000, or $500,000, or $1,000,000, or $2,000,000, or $10,000,000. It is a queer statesman who loudly proclaims a "practical plan" for one day and then shuts up when the people are asking what he means.

WILD FAKES.

Democrats Planned Them For Closing Days of Campaign.

THE DEMOCRATIC AVERAGE

They Have Put Forth Over One Roarback Per Day.

A FEW WORDS OF WARNING

Republicans Must Be On Their Guard Against a Wild Saturnalia of Fakes, Roarbacks and Eleventh-Hour Lies of Every Sort and Description.

The last days of the campaign may be expected to be prolific of roarbacks and wild Democratic falsehoods.

From the opening of the campaign Mr. McLean's Enquirer has been prolific of fakes of every sort and description.

No appeal to prejudice, however gauzy, has been overlooked by them in their appeal to public prejudice and passion.

Up to date the number of false and malicious campaign tales which have been put out through Mr. McLean's Enquirer, and which have been promptly refuted in every case where they were worth paying attention to, has averaged more than one a day since the nomination of Mr. McLean.

With this record in the early days of the campaign, every Republican knows what to expect during the last week. There will be a wild flood of outrageous falsehoods and fakes.

Already reports have been received at Republican state headquarters of stories of the most malicious and villainous kind that are to be sprung during the closing days of the campaign, with the expectation that it will then be too late for the Republicans to deny them, and that some voters may be fooled into voting for McLean, free silver and a panic.

It is not necessary to outline the information already in the hands of the Republican campaign managers of the state campaign. It is sufficient to warn every Republican that during the closing days of the campaign he may expect a saturnalia of falsehood and vilification.

It will not be surprising if the famous Morey letter forgery of 1880 is surpassed in the daring desperation of the Enquirer gang.

Republicans are warned in advance, and will be prepared to discount every eleventh hour fake that may come.

The people are justified in doubting the sincerity of William J. Bryan in opposing the administration's policy in the Philippines when they remember that he advocated the ratification by the United States senate of the treaty with Spain which brought them to us. He realizes that the demand to withdraw our troops in the face of the enemy is very unpopular with the American people, and he now takes the inconsistent position of affirming that he was opposed in the first place to our accepting them from Spain. When he can satisfactorily explain how it is possible for a man to be for and against a proposition at the same time, it may be understood how he could be in favor of the treaty by which the legal title of the islands passed to us, and now oppose the administration for carrying into effect the terms of that treaty.

"You think you know all about women, don't you?" asked the newly married boarder.

"No," replied the savage bachelor, "and I am mighty glad I don't!"—Indianapolis Journal.

There will be no electric lights in the East End fire station until after the first of the year, according to a statement made recently by Manager L. W. Healy, of the light company. Mr. Healy intends to make some radical improvements in the East End after the plant has been moved.

The East End station has been wired for months waiting for the connection to be made.

Those who saw it assert it to be the largest ever captured by an East End man.

DEWEY IS TO MARRY.

Announced His Engagement to Mrs. Hazen, a Sister of John R. McLean.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey announced to some of his more intimate friends the fact of his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city. Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, chief signal officer of the army, who died about ten years ago, and a sister of John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio. Mrs. Hazen has no children, and since her husband's death has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about 40 years of age, and popular in the best social circles of Washington.

The news of the admiral's engagement first became known last night, when the admiral announced the fact to a few of his friends, and a delegation of Tennesseans. Later in the evening he visited the Lafayette Square theater, and, while there, also communicated the news to some of his near friends and to Secretary Long, who occupied one of the boxes.

While the date of the wedding is not definitely known, the understanding is that it will take place some time during November. She was the daughter of a former governor of Vermont. One child from that marriage, a son, is now living in New York. General Hazen, the former husband of Mrs. Hazen, died on Jan. 16, 1887, and a son from their union died last year.

A MISTAKE, SAYS ORVIS.

The Oil Operator Claims He Was Not Guilty of Forgery—Ellis Held For a Further Hearing Without Bail.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—William F. Ellis, a Boston promoter, accused of complicity in the larceny on Oct. 5 of $45,000 from the First National bank of Washington, Pa., was rearraigned in police court and committed without bail until today. Cashier C. S. Ritchie of the First National bank, Washington, Pa., and James S. Hammond, a borough policeman of the same place, appeared in court against Ellis. Cashier Ritchie testified that the $45,000 had been given to T. J. Vandergrift, who has an office in the building of that name in Pittsburg. The witness testified further that after forgeries had been discovered and bogus promissory notes had been repudiated by E. L. Parker & Co., bankers, of Baltimore, whose signature was attached, Vandergrift, in the presence of Ellis and at the office of the former, claimed to have sent Ellis certain drafts.

Since this statement was made, on the 19th inst., Mr. Ritchie admitted the bank with which he is connected had received all of the money back with the exception of about $13,000. The attorneys for Ellis made a strenuous effort to secure the discharge of the prisoner. Magistrate Deuel, though expressing the opinion that the case against Ellis was not very strong, decided to hold him for a time for the purpose of allowing the complaining witnesses further opportunity to produce additional evidence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—C. B. Orvis, the Pennsylvania oil operator who has been arrested here in connection with the forgery of papers for $30,000 in Washington, Pa., left for Pittsburg in custody of an eastern officer. His wife and son will remain in Chicago, believing Mr. Orvis will have little trouble in proving his innocence.

"There is a big mistake somewhere," said Orvis. "If there has been any forgery committed I am one of the victims. I am sure, however, I will be cleared when I reach Washington."

KILLED A WOMAN SPECTATOR.

Bullet Went Wild Fired by a Fugitive From Justice.

IRONTON, O., Oct. 31.—C. P. Moore of Green River, Ky., resisted arrest for disorderly conduct and a running fight with the officers ensued. Moore emptied a 38-caliber revolver and one bullet, which went wild, passed through the window of a residence, killing Mrs. Lot Henthorn, wife of a clothing salesman, who was watching the fight.

Moore was finally captured after he had received slight wounds in the head and legs. Threats of lynching were made and Moore pleaded piteously for protection. The excitement quickly subsided when Moore had been lodged in jail.

M'GIFERT WOULD NOT RESIGN.

Committee Will Report to New York Presbytery on His Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Prof. Arthur C. McGiffert of Union seminary refused quietly to resign from the Presbyterian ministry. At the final meeting of the committee of the New York presbytery it was decided so to report to the presbytery at its next meeting, Nov. 13.

The committee will report to the presbytery that Prof. McGiffert's views are not in accord with the cardinal doctrines of the church and will recommend that the presbytery refer the case to the general assembly of next May for more definite instructions. It is not certain that the presbytery will accept the recommendations of its committee to refer the case back to the general assembly as it is quite within its power to order a trial of Prof. McGiffert on its own responsibility. Prof. McGiffert and the members of the committee refused to discuss the controversy for publication.

"Where did you get them?" breathlessly inquired the heavy man.

"I got them for a mere song," she replied. And it was even so. She furnished the song and the audience furnished the eggs.—Chicago News.

DEWEY IS TO MARRY.

Announced His Engagement to Mrs. Hazen, a Sister of John R. McLean.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey announced to some of his more intimate friends the fact of his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city. Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, chief signal officer of the army, who died about ten years ago, and a sister of John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio. Mrs. Hazen has no children, and since her husband's death has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about 40 years of age, and popular in the best social circles of Washington.

The news of the admiral's engagement first became known last night, when the admiral announced the fact to a few of his friends, and a delegation of Tennesseans. Later in the evening he visited the Lafayette Square theater, and, while there, also communicated the news to some of his near friends and to Secretary Long, who occupied one of the boxes.

While the date of the wedding is not definitely known, the understanding is that it will take place some time during November. She was the daughter of a former governor of Vermont. One child from that marriage, a son, is now living in New York. General Hazen, the former husband of Mrs. Hazen, died on Jan. 16, 1887, and a son from their union died last year.

The Oil Operator Claims He Was Not Guilty of Forgery—Ellis Held For a Further Hearing Without Bail.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—William F. Ellis, a Boston promoter, accused of complicity in the larceny on Oct. 5 of $45,000 from the First National bank of Washington, Pa., was arraigned in police court and committed without bail until today. Cashier C. S. Ritchie of the First National bank, Washington, Pa., and James S. Hammond, a borough policeman of the same place, appeared in court against Ellis. Cashier Ritchie testified that the $45,000 had been given to T. J. Vandergrift, who has an office in the building of that name in Pittsburg. The witness testified further that after forgeries had been discovered and bogus promissory notes had been repudiated by E. L. Parker & Co., bankers, or Baltimore, whose signature was attached, Vandergrift, in the presence of Ellis and at the office of the former, claimed to have sent Ellis certain drafts.

Since this statement was made, on the 19th inst., Mr. Ritchie admitted the bank with which he is connected had received all of the money back with the exception of about $13,000. The attorneys for Ellis made a strenuous effort to secure the discharge of the prisoner. Magistrate Deuel, though expressing the opinion that the case against Ellis was not very strong, decided to hold him for a time for the purpose of allowing the complaining witnesses further opportunity to produce additional evidence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—C. B. Orvis, the Pennsylvania oil operator who has been arrested here in connection with the forgery of papers for $30,000 in Washington, Pa., left for Pittsburg in custody of an eastern officer. His wife and son will remain in Chicago, believing Mr. Orvis will have little trouble in proving his innocence.

"There is a big mistake somewhere," said Orvis. "If there has been any forgery committed I am one of the victims. I am sure, however, I will be cleared when I reach Washington."

KILLED A WOMAN SPECTATOR.

Bullet Went Wild Fired by a Fugitive From Justice.

IRONTON, O., Oct. 31.—C. P. Moore of Green River, Ky., resisted arrest for disorderly conduct and a running fight with the officers ensued. Moore emptied a 38-caliber revolver and one bullet, which went wild, passed through the window of a residence, killing Mrs. Lot Henthorn, wife of a clothing salesman, who was watching the fight.

Moore was finally captured after he had received slight wounds in the head and legs. Threats of lynching were made and Moore pleaded piteously for protection. The excitement quickly subsided when Moore had been lodged in jail.

Committee Will Report to New York Presbytery on His Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Prof. Arthur O. McGiffert of Union seminary refused quietly to resign from the Presbyterian ministry. At the final meeting of the committee of the New York presbytery it was decided so to report to the presbytery at its next meeting, Nov. 13.

The committee will report to the presbytery that Prof. McGiffert's views are not in accord with the cardinal doctrines of the church and will recommend that the presbytery refer the case to the general assembly of next May for more definite instructions. It is not certain that the presbytery will accept the recommendations of its committee to refer the case back to the general assembly as it is quite within its power to order a trial of Prof. McGiffert on its own responsibility. Prof. McGiffert and the members of the committee refused to discuss the controversy for publication.

BULLER AT THE CAPE

British Commander Reaches South Africa.

BOERS' ATTACK ON LADYSMITH.

Shelled the Place, but a Naval Reinforcement Silenced Their Battery With Their Guns—Smith's Forces Drove the Boers Back Several Miles.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Cape Town announced the arrival in Table bay of the Dunottar Castle, with General Sir Redvers Buller and his staff. They will meet with a tremendous ovation in Cape Town.

It is reported from Pretoria that 200 of the British wounded from Dundee have arrived there and have been furnished accommodation in the state school building.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from General Buller read in part as follows: "I employed all the troops here except the obligatory garrison before the grandstand, but were repulsed, leaving six dead on the field, and it was believed that many of the attacking party were wounded. The dispatch adds that Saturday morning Colonel Baden-Powell asked for an armistice in order to bury the dead. General Cronje consented to this, the Boers assisting in placing the dead in the wagon returning to Mafeking.

PLACED IN THE TOMB.

Remains of General Henry Rest Near Those of His Old Chief—President at the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—General Guy V. Henry was given military burial at Arlington, his grave being close to the Temple of Fame and close to that of his old commander, General Crook. The president and secretary of war and other members of the cabinet attended the services both at the church and at the cemetery. The military escort consisted of a battery of artillery, Troop I of the Third Cavalry, now stationed at Fort Myer, where General Henry was once in command, and the members of the Guy V. Henry garrison, a colored veterans' association comprising many of the old troopers of the Tenth Cavalry who served under Henry in the west.

St. John's church, where the first service was held, was crowded and the chancel was filled with flowers, conspicuous among them was a great white wreath from the executive mansion. The president and Secretary Root came together to the church. There were present also Secretary Hay, Assistant Postmaster General Heath, Adjutant General Corbin, General Fitzhugh Lee and many other of General Henry's old friends in the service. The pallbearers were General J. M. Wilson, chief of engineers; Judge Advocate General Lieber, General A. W. Greely, chief signal officer, and Generals Frank, Rugles and Bernard.

A FERRYBOAT CUT IN TWO IN HARBOR.

A Disastrous Collision at New York. Number of Lives May Be Lost. One Body Found.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Pennsylvania ferryboat Chicago, plying between Jersey City and New York, was cut in two by the steamer City of Augusta of the Old Dominion steamship line, at 12:35 this morning on the New York side of North river. She went down in seven or eight minutes. There were between 30 and 40 people aboard, four being women. It is supposed that several persons were drowned, though there is no positive proof of this assertion.

In spite of the severity of the accident there was no panic.

The steamboat squad a few minutes before 2 o'clock found a body, which is supposed, is that of one of the passengers on the ferryboat, drowned as the result of the collision.

Mr. H. W. Bible of this city jumped overboard with a life preserver. He saw four women struggling in the water near him, but was unable to help them. He was picked up by a lifeboat and taken ashore.

Searchlight was used in the work of rescue. A number of tugs and some boats were secured. Everything was done possible under the circumstances to pick up persons from the water. One boat brought in six men, two women and a child.

Christmas Boxes For Manila.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—At the army pier in Brooklyn a corps of men were busily engaged receiving and recording the wagonloads of boxes which come in from all parts of the country for the United States soldiers in the Philippines. The government furnishes free transportation, and many persons are taking advantage of the fact to send Christmas boxes to their relatives and friends in Manila.

Dyer Asked to Be Relieved.

MELROSE, Mass., Oct. 31.—Captain N. M. Dyer, U. S. N., who commanded the Baltimore at the Manila fight and who has been assigned to Havana to command the naval station there, has asked to be relieved of that duty, owing to his physical condition.

HAVANA, Oct. 31.—Governor General Brooke received a petition signed by a number of Cuban farmers urging protection against American corn.

MANILA, Oct. 31.—Three companies of Colonel Bell's regiment had two encounters with the insurgents near Laban and scattered them. The insurgents left four officers and eight men dead on the field and the Americans captured three prisoners and several guns. On the American side, one man was killed and two officers and six men were wounded.

Captain French took a reconnoitering party beyond Laban, after he had met the enemy and was reinforced by Major Bishop with two companies. The insurgents brought up cavalry reinforcements and there was a second fight, during which their leader, Major Salvador, was killed and many were wounded and carried away.

Colonel Bell had been given a free hand around Bacolor. He had about 60 mounted men scouring the country daily and they were killing many Filipinos in skirmishes.

The Spanish commission, which entered the insurgent lines a month ago with money to relieve the wants of several thousand military and civil Spanish prisoners, returned to Manila. The commissioners reported that they spent most of the time in Tarlac and vicinity, where there were some 200 sick Spaniards in the hospital. The Filipinos ill-treated and illfed them, refusing to surrender them, as well as the other Spanish prisoners, in the hope of compelling Spain to recognize the independence of the islands.

There were 14 American prisoners, they said, at Tarlac, all of whom were well treated. Lieutenant S. C. Gilmore of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who fell into the hands of the insurgents at Baler, on the east coast of Luzon last April, where the Yorktown had gone on a special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison, was at Binat.

The commissioners brought a letter to General Otis from a relative of the murdered Filipino General Luna, who wished to avenge the assassination by Aguinaldo's officers, and who asked a personal interview with the military governor.

According to the commissioners' statement, Aguinaldo, who was at Tarlac with about 3,000 troops, wished to continue the war, although he had a high opinion of the American officers and soldiers. General Lawton he called "El General de La Noche" (the night general), because that commander has attacked him so often in the darkness that he never knew when to look for him.

Aguinaldo was said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition and he was able to get plenty of rice from the northern provinces.

With the Spanish commissioners came a large number of women, the families of eight prominent officers of the Filipino army, who recently applied to General Otis for permission to send their families to Manila. Upon the receipt of the military governor's reply, the nature of which had not been disclosed, the women and children started under escort from Tarlac for the American lines. When they arrived General MacArthur compelled them to halt about a mile beyond our outposts, where they were to remain while their credentials were being examined.

AMERICANS WELCOMED.

Insurgent Troops Had Fled From Cabanatuan—Bates Governor of Mohammedan Island.

MAMILA, Oct. 31.—(8:50 a. m.)—Major Ballance's battalion of the Twenty-second infantry entered Cabanatuan yesterday, meeting with no resistance. The natives welcomed the Americans, shouting "Viva Los Americanos." The insurgent troops had fled to the mountains.

General Bates will be appointed military governor of the Mohammedan islands, with headquarters at Jolo until Zamboanga is occupied.

General Fred Grant will command General Bates' brigade.

RAIN WRECKED IN THE FOG.

Fireman Killed on Pittsburg and Western—Engineer Hurt.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Oct. 31.—The Chicago express on the Pittsburg and Western railroad was wrecked in the darkness and fog at Carbon station, seven miles west of here. The fireman was killed and the engineer was injured. Several passengers were also injured, but not seriously. The casualties follow:

George Holliday, fireman, killed by the engine falling on him. He was single and resided at Bennett, Pa.

George Cupps, engineer, cut and bruised, condition not serious, was removed to the Allegheny General hospital. He is married and lives at Mars, Pa.

At Clarion station are a number of switches which run to West New Castle junction. A westbound coal train was halted on the main track at this point for the Chicago express to pass. After the switches had been turned, the passenger was given signals of a clear track by way of a side track around the freight train. The engineer put on steam and the locomotive was soon at a good speed. It dashed on the side track and into an open switch.

PHILIPPINE COMMISSION MET.

Proceedings to Be Kept Secret Until Deliberations Are Over.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Philippine commission held its first meeting at the quarters selected for them in the Arlington. Prof. Schurman on reaching Washington paid an early call at the state department, after which he went to the commission's rooms, where Admiral Dewey and Colonel Denby were waiting.

It was announced before the meeting that all the sessions would be secret and that none of the deliberations would be made public until the commission had finished its labors. Colonel Denby said that no program had been arranged and that it was impossible to say even what general course would be followed till after the commissioners had discussed the matter.

Probably Four of the 42 Wives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Chief of Detectives Collieran received a telegram from Baltimore stating that Walter L. Farnsworth, the confessed bigamist now in jail here, and who is said to have had 42 wives, is wanted in that city for marrying four women under the name of Sterling Orville Thomas. The prisoner does not deny this is his real name. Marie Larson, 718 Sixth street, Philadelphia, also thinks she is one of Farnsworth's wives, and has written Captain Collieran to send her a picture of the bigamist.

A LONG ELECTRIC LINE

Plans to Unite Cleveland and Pittsburg.

CAPITALISTS WORK ON THE SCHEME

Said to Desire to Make Cleveland Pivotal Point of Greatest Suburban Electric System in World—To Inspect Available Lines.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—Certain eastern and Ohio capitalists are said to be desirous of making Cleveland the pivotal point of the greatest suburban electric railway system in the world. About 25 Philadelphia and other capitalists are expected in Cleveland today to interview representatives of street railway companies and members of the chamber of commerce. The visitors will probably remain in the city for a few days, and will make tours of inspection over the various suburban lines.

In a few weeks they have visited Niles, Youngstown, Warren and other places in the northeastern section of the state, inspecting various suburban lines. Steps have already been taken toward the establishment of the new system, about 250 miles of right of way having been secured in the northeastern section of the state. Franchises have already been secured for the new road at Burton, Jefferson and Andover. In order to facilitate the work a corporation, known as the Burton, Jefferson and Andover Electric Railway company, has been formed.

The officers are: Eugene Rawdon, president; W. H. Dodge, vice president; A. H. Lindsley, treasurer, and E. H. Green, secretary. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the suburban line between Warren and Youngstown.

Representatives of the eastern investors are at work between Youngstown and Pittsburg and within a few years Cleveland and Pittsburg will be the terminals of the largest electric railway system in the country. At present, however, it is proposed to start with Cleveland as the basic point, and build out in an easterly and southeasterly direction.

PENNSY MAY GET CONTROL

Confirmation of Lima & Northern Branch Sale to Be Asked.

TOLEDO, Oct. 31.—W. B. Strang, who recently purchased the St. Mary's branch of the Detroit and Lima Northern, will ask the United States court for a confirmation today, and it is believed a move will be made to ask a removal of the receiver of the Lima Northern as well.

Mr. Strang was reticent as to the exact move he intended to make in court today. When questioned as to the sale of the St. Mary's division to the Pennsylvania lines, or to the Pittsburg, Port Wayne and Chicago, he stated that such a sale had been thought of, but no negotiations are in progress.

FRIARS ORDERED FROM GUAM.

Captain Leary Would Allow Only One to Remain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The navy department received a report from Captain Leary, the naval governor of the island of Guam, in the Larrones. The president himself has read the report.

Captain Leary soon learned that his authority as governor was being subverted and every one of the measures of reform which he proposed was being defeated by the hostile influence of the friars. He ordered them out of the island, saying he would give them transportation.

That left but one friar on the island, and he was a man whose character and reputation was such as to convince Captain Leary of his fitness to remain.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Alice Gwynne Vanderbilt, widow of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, filed a waiver of citation and gave formal consent to the admission of her husband's will to probate.

works. I sent a mountain battery, the Royal Irish Fusiliers and the Gloucesters to take up a position on the hills, to clear my left flank. During some night firing the battery mules stampeded with some of the guns, which, however, I hope to recover. These two battalions have not yet returned, but are expected.

"I detailed two brigade divisions of field artillery and five battalions of infantry, aided by cavalry, under General French, to attack a position upon which the enemy mounted guns. We found this position evacuated, but our force was attacked with considerable vigor by what I believe were General Joubert's troops. They had many guns and showed in great numbers. Our troops were all in action and we pushed the enemy back several miles, but did not succeed in reaching his laager. Our losses are estimated at between 80 and 100, but those of the enemy must have been much greater, the fire of our guns appearing very effective.

"After being in action several hours I withdrew the troops and they returned unmolested to their cantonments. The enemy are in great numbers and their guns range further than our field guns.

"I now have some naval guns which have temporarily silenced and, I hope, will permanently dominate the enemy's best guns, with which he has been bombarding the town at a range of over 6,000 yards."

A war office dispatch from Cape Town, dated Oct. 26, said: "An armored train under Llewellyn, got within 1,900 yards of the Boer laager, three miles south of Crocodile Poort. The Boers had driven in their horses on the approach of the train. Three Maxim belts were discharged into the Boers, who must have had considerable loss. They then returned ten shots with no effect. Colonel Plumer's outposts had several skirmishes on the Crocodile river."

From later advices it was learned that the Llewellyn train returned to Mochudi, 100 miles north of Mafeking. Llewellyn reported all quiet.

LORENZO MARQUES, Delagoa Bay, Oct. 31.—A dispatch received here from Pretoria, under date of Oct. 28, said: General Cronje, the Boer commander, announced there that the British garrison at Mafeking made a bayonet attack on Commandant Louw's laager, near

UP AGAINST THE TRUST

Board of Education Has Experiences With

THE SCHOOL FURNITURE COMPANY

All Its Correspondence to the Various Firms Returned to It by the Trust's Agent—Bills Ordered Paid—No Bids on Coal While River Is Low and Prices High.

The board of education met in regular session last evening, Messrs. Norris and Murphy being absent. The meeting lasted but 28 minutes.

Clerk Hill, as chairman of the committee to purchase desks, reported he had not purchased any, as had been his intention. All correspondence to the several desk firms had been returned to him through the agent of the American School Furniture company. The various letters were read to the board. At this point Mr. Williams came in and the clerk gave him the letters.

"I have heard of this matter today. It is very thin, and it seems to me that there is something radically wrong. I do not believe that we are tied up by the school furniture company, as the case seems. We will not need these desks until about January, and there would be no harm in waiting for two weeks at least."

The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

The following bills were ordered paid: Mrs. Ida Moore, $3; Ginn & Co., $63.50; D. Slote & Co., $6; Eagle Hardware Co., $124.90; J. L. Arnold, $8; W. H. Adams, $63.10; Atkinson & Mentzer, $128; J. D. Luse & Son, $31.27; W. M. Welch & Co., $12.36; Houghton, Mifflin & Co., $7.35; A. H. No bids will be taken for the furnishing of coal to the suburban schools until the river rises.

After the meeting adjourned the members were invited to the superintendent's office, where they viewed specimens of writing done in the primary grades.

Surprise

Clothing House,

Anticipating the rise in woolen and cotton goods, bought their woolens and cottons direct from the mills one year ago. We agreed to take so many goods each week till our orders were filled, and have been manufacturing and making them into men's, boys' and childrens' suitings, overcoats and pantaloons ever since. As we bought these goods before the rise you will see, naturally, we will be able to undersell all competitors.

Under any other circumstances we would have plenty of room in our stores, but under existing circumstances we will be overcrowded, and must do something to make room for the goods that we have and the goods we are receiving every week, and in order to do so we are selling all goods in clothing and gents' furnishing goods at the old prices, and in many instances for less.

Owing to our big outlet for gents' furnishing goods, we are enabled to buy our goods direct from the mills in case lots. We therefore can save you the middle-man's profit in both your clothing and gents' furnishing goods. We haven't the space to quote you prices; in fact it would take a whole book to tell you the good things we have for you.

We extend you an invitation to call and see us when buying your fall clothing and gents' furnishing goods, and save money. Strictly one price to all.

Working on the Extension to Cut Through County Road Near the Big Loop Will Be Started Tomorrow—Moved the Tracks—Civil Case Settled Out of Court—Oil Territory Leased.

Contractor McNally will complete the work of excavating on the Cumberland extension by the last of November and is now making arrangements to move all the machinery to Pittsburg. Superintendent George McNally was seen last night and in speaking of the work said:

"There is less than one-half mile of grading to be done, and as there are two shovels working together, some fast work will be done. Rails will be laid as far as Newell's ferry probably this week, and when we get the shovels out of the narrows it is only a question of a few weeks until the road is completed as far as Rock Springs."

MOVED TRACKS.

The Cut Through County Road Will Be Made Tomorrow.

Arrangements are now being made to make the cut through the county road at the intersection of the street railway. The cars yesterday only ran a short distance above the livery stable, but by this evening the cars will be able to run as far as the spring. The tracks are being moved about 10 feet north of the road. The steam shovel will be used in the excavating.

The work on the new bridges is progressing rapidly and as all the material has been delivered, it will be but a few weeks until the two bridges are completed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Cleanliness Is Akin to Godliness.
Testimony of a Physician.

There is a great scare in East Liverpool in consequence of a skin disease which has made its appearance, and the statement is made by some that it is what is commonly known as "barber's itch." I have consulted prominent physicians of this city, and they have assured me that the affection is epidemic all over the country, affecting alike men, women and children, and is a germ disease. Some physicians assert that it is contagious, while others state that it is not. A pound of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. In order to be on the safe side, I desire to announce that, hereafter, I shall conduct my shop on a strictly antiseptic plan, thoroughly disinfecting razors before and after shaving. Further, I shall discard the use of the sponge altogether, using clean towels in each and every instance, thereby avoiding any possible chance of infection. Respectfully,

OVER $50,000 STOLEN.

A Man Robbed on a St. Louis Street Car In Daylight on Busy Street.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Robert B. Jennings, secretary and treasurer of the Broadway cable line, was robbed of $1,043 in cash and $48,750 in checks while standing on the rear platform of a platform of a Broadway car at Broadway and Washington avenue.

The robbery was committed in broad daylight in one of the busiest corners of St. Louis.

Mr. Jennings had just drawn the money from the bank, intending to take it to the railroad company's offices on North Broadway to pay off the hands. The robbers evidently knew he had drawn the money from the bank.

Just as Mr. Jennings was getting on the car two men approached and one of them jostled up against him. This was done to attract his attention away from the other man, who picked his pocket while the street railroad official turned to see who jostled him. Mr. Jennings discovered he had been robbed shortly after it occurred, but the men had in the meantime made their escape.

Payment on the checks, which were drawn on the Boatmen's bank, has been stopped by the railroad company.

Mr. Jennings was robbed of a large amount several years ago under somewhat similar circumstances. Two men boarded a Broadway car and snatched up a satchel he had at his feet containing $4,000. The robbers were captured and sent to the penitentiary.

The Bertha brought down the body of Fred Cullin, who committed suicide at Cape Nome, on account of sickness. He had been successful.

Several of the Bertha's passengers were suffering from typhoid pneumonia and were removed to hospitals on stretchers.

NOT HERE ALONE.

Because there is no chance of Democratic success in this city or county this day week the Republicans of East Liverpool and Columbiana county should not run away with the idea that it doesn't matter whether their votes are polled or not. Their votes are of vital importance in the state campaign.

ance in the state campaign. A vote in East Liverpool for Geo. K. Nash and the Republican state ticket will count as much in the returns as a vote in Hamilton county. The county ticket will be elected by a safe and handsome majority but there is no such assurance for the state ticket. Every vote should be cast; they may all be needed.

THE SPEAKER'S OPINION.

Congressman D. B. Henderson, the next speaker of the national house of representatives, says: "A big Republican majority in Ohio will show the satisfaction of the people with the administration and with conditions which have brought so much prosperity to the land and so much happiness to the country's homes."

JONES AND HIS VOTE.

The Toledo Blade, published in the home city of Mayor Sam Jones, says he "will probably poll from 75,000 to 100,000 votes in Ohio this fall. The bulk of this will be in the cities. The seat of his greatest strength does not appear to be Toledo, but Cleveland—the result largely of the big street railway strike last summer. He has no following among the farmers."

This estimate does not seem too large in view of the fact that Coxey received 52,000 votes in Ohio in 1895. If Jones gets anywhere near 100,000 votes, or even 75,000, it will mean that Nash will have fifty to seventy-five thousand more votes to get, for fully that proportion of Jones' vote is expected to come from people who have hitherto most frequently voted the Republican ticket.

East Liverpool ought to make good this loss by a record breaking vote for the Republican ticket.

DO THEY OWN YOURS?

Own your what? Your vote, of course. This is the boast of the whisky ring of East Liverpool. They make boast that they can and will control the necessary number of votes to rule this city. They claim that the political parties are afraid of them and dare not disobey them. Can this be true? They claim that they will ruin a business man if he bids them defiance, and will drive him out of the city. Can this be true? God pity a city where exist such poltroons and cowards. We do not believe that this is true of East Liverpool. We believe that there are business men in this city who will dare ring out defiance to these agents of the devil. We believe that a great many of our citizens will dare do the same noble thing. We believe that the saloons could be voted out of this city at the present time, if submitted to the popular vote of "SALOONS OR NO SALOONS;" and woe be to the councilmen who would dare to attempt to thwart the will of the sovereign people, as a despotic council in this city did a few years ago, the members who did it being in the employ and pay of the whisky ring, as per the evidence of their ballots; a shameless proceeding; an outrage against all justice and law; a criminal thing; an action which should forever bar such men from holding office hereafter. Do they own yours?

SPIT ON HIM.

Spit on Him by the Force of the Law With a $5 Bill.

There is an ordinance against spitting on the floors of street cars. As with many other ordinances of the city, it is not enforced. It should be, in the name of common decency and cleanliness. A lady patron of our street railway says: "I am a regular patron of the street railway. The spitting habit continues to contaminate and render disgusting and filthy the floors of our street cars. Some men pay no attention to the new law, but seem to glory in defying it and in acting like full-fledged bristle raisers. Manager L. W. Healy and Superintendent James Reed will confer a great favor on lady patrons if these officials should issue an order requiring motor-men and conductors to report offenders against the street car ordinance. Mayor Bough and his officials will win many friends if they arrest a few of the law-breakers and put the full fine and costs against them."

SURPRISED.

Several Lady Friends Called on Mrs. George Matheny Last Night.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gray Bradshaw avenue, last evening was the scene of a very pleasant party. Mrs. George Matheny, of Martin's Ferry, has been visiting friends in the city for several days, and it was decided to give a surprise party in her honor. She was very much surprised and pleased when 16 of her lady friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Gray, and they all spent a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served.

INTENT TO DEFRAUD ALLEGED

Thomas Buckley and Thos. F. Manley File a Petition Against Richard Barlow and Others--Attachment Entered Against Two Lots In This City to Secure a Note.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—[Special].—Thomas Buckley and Thomas F. Manley, as executors of the will of Maria Manley, of East Liverpool, have filed a petition against Richard Barlow and wife Sarah, Anna E. Smith and W. L. Smith. Plaintiffs say that by endorsement their decedent became the owner of a note for $1,900, executed in 1890 by Richard Barlow to William Wildblood; further, that in 1891 Richard Barlow transferred lot 410 and a part of lot 10 in East Liverpool to his wife, Sarah Barlow, without any consideration whatever and with intent to hinder and defraud his creditors; and in 1894 Sarah and Richard Barlow transferred said lot 410 to their daughter, Anna E. Smith, wife of the defendant, W. L. Smith, without any valuable consideration. Barlow has no other property on which the amount now due on the note can be collected. Plaintiff asked that both transfers be set aside. Lot 413 is the lot in the Diamond on which is located the storeroom lately occupied by Steinfeld & Viney. The Commercial hotel is located on the other piece of land. Under an order of attachment the real estate was attached and appraised at $11,000, the former piece at $7,000 and the latter at $4,000.

THE MAYOR WAS BUSY

Several Offenders Faced Him This Morning.

TWO OF THEM WERE FINED

But the Others Are Awaiting Hearings. One Man Whipped His Wife and Another Got Drunk--Torrance Acted the Part of a Good Samaritan.

Mayor Bough had several cases before him this morning, but did not dispose of all of them.

Last night Robert Wilson was near the First M. E. church on Fifth street and was making a terrible noise, yelling and singing at the top of his voice. Woods took him to city hall and the mayor fined him $9.60. He didn't have the cash and is still in jail.

James Hanlon got helplessly drunk last night and when Officer Mahony found him he was asleep on the sidewalk on Market street. Hanlon objected to being awakened but after the officer explained the matter to him it was all right and he was taken to city hall and given a soft bed. He slept well and this morning paid the mayor $7.60 and went home.

Joseph Furnival last night loaded up on bad whisky and finally arrived at the conclusion that he was the "whole thing." He went to his home this morning and declared himself to his wife. He began to abuse her but Officer Woods put a stop to it by arriving on the scene. Furnival was taken to jail where he is now awaiting a hearing, the mayor giving him time to sober up. His wife says she will appear against him.

This morning an old drunken man was hanging against a fence on East Market street and Officers McDonald and Woods decided they would walk him to city hall and not call the patrol. The man didn't like the walk, but he was arrested and was finally landed in the city jail. He refused to tell his name, but will get a hearing when he sobers up.

David C. Torrance, who lives at East End, Pittsburg, was arrested last night by Officer Whan. It was thought he might be implicated in the Theodore Petty and David Hewitt fight. Torrance when called before the mayor said he was not in the fight, but had started down street with one of the parties and had gone back to pick up his companion's hat. He said he didn't know much about the fight and was entirely innocent. The mayor decided that Torrance was telling a true story and he was released.

A portion of the Sheridan avenue kids who have been annoying the school on that thoroughfare called on the Mayor last evening and there are more to follow.

HALLOWEEN.

The Police Will See That Good Order is Kept This Evening.

The mayor and police officers are making preparations for Halloween this evening and there will be an extra force. They are determined there shall be no depredations and intend to arrest all boys who are found in mischief. There has been so many complaints made to the mayor that he deems this step necessary and will see that every law is strictly enforced.

TRAVELING VENDORS

Do Not Meet With a Very Warm Reception In This City.

For several days two men have been selling jewelry at the intersection of Sixth street and Mulberry alley. Last evening a large crowd gathered around the first stand and a wild rush was started. The stand upset and the jewelry scattered. About half of it was lost. The men gathered up their stock and started to leave but they had their troubles. One of them was hit on the head with a board and they both took refuge in a store until a street car arrived when they went to the hotel.

TROUBLE.

A Young Man and His Brother-in-Law Came to Blows.

STRIKE STILL ON

The Trouble Has Not Been Settled and

PROSPECTS ARE UNFAVORABLE

For an Early Adjustment of the Affair.—The Manufacturers Met and Decided to Not Accede to the Demands—Some Potteries Were Shut Down and More will Follow—Both Sides are Meeting this Afternoon.

The strike of the biscuit warehouse girls is still on and has assumed large proportions, the girls in all the potteries being out. Some of the potteries shut down this morning and others will stop work this evening. It is reported that every pottery in the city will be shut down by Thursday unless the strike is settled.

The Strikers' Meeting.

The girls met yesterday afternoon in Ferguson & Hill hall and told their grievances to President Hughes of the Brotherhood. There was a large attendance at the session, and nearly every pottery in the city was represented. President Hughes told the strikers it would have been better had they given the manufacturers some notice of their intention to ask for more money before they struck. He advised them to or-

ANOTHER TRUST TALE.

Promoter Joseph T. Davis In Town Considering How to Form a Combine.

During the past few days Joseph T. Davis, of New York, has been in the city talking to the various potteries relative to organizing a trust. Mr. Davis claims to have a plan entirely foreign to any of those presented by other concerns which attempted to organize a combination among the potteries. He was seen at noon prior to his departure for the East but would not talk of his visit.

The potters who were seen today stated Mr. Davis attempted to form a trust here several months ago, but was unsuccessful in his work.

David Hewitt Badly Cut in a Fight Last Night.

CHESTER WORKMEN QUARRELED

After Being Ejected from a Market Street Saloon.—One of Contractor McNally's Employees Carved by a Colleague and Laid off Duty.

David Hewitt, of Pittsburg, employed by Contractor McNally, was severely cut last evening with a razor while fighting on lower Market street.

Hewitt, with several friends, went to the Keystone saloon on Market street at 8 o'clock last night but were ejected 30 minutes later on account of their actions. When the men neared Second street they commenced a quarrel. One of the number pulled a razor from his pocket and cut Hewitt on the nose, lower lip, chin, right shoulder and left thigh. The man who did the cutting threw his razor away and made his escape. Hewitt was taken to the office of a physician where his injuries were dressed. This morning he drew $15 from a building and loan association and was to go to Pittsburg this afternoon.

TO MR. JONES.

Chairman Dick Indites a Telling Letter.

PARTIES WERE GOOD ENOUGH

For Mr. Jones as Long as They Were Willing to Run Him For Office.

WHEN HE WAS TURNED DOWN

He Started a Party In Which "Jones Was the Whole Thing."

THE PARTIES ARE A NECESSITY

In a Republican Form of Government, They Can Not Exist. In an Absolute Monarchy—Their Work as Legitimate as That of Any Other Organization For a Public Purpose.

A few days ago Samuel M. Jones wrote a letter to Chairman Dick of the Republican state committee, which he discourteously gave out to the press before it had time to reach Colonel Dick in the course of the mails. The letter was in reply to the circular request sent out by the Republican state committee, asking for contributions to the party cause. In his reply Mr. Jones took occasion to indulge in his usualrodomontade about political parties, and signed himself "President of the Acme Sucker Rod Co." (to which the circular had been sent), and "Non-Partisan candidate for Governor."

In reply, Chairman Dick sent the following keen epistle puncturing the peculiar claims of Mr. Jones in regard to parties:

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.
Hon. Samuel M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Co., Toledo, O.:

My Dear Sir—Replying to your letter of recent date, which you took the liberty to give to the press before I had received it through the mail, I desire to call your attention to certain statements in my letter, to which you do not find objection, viz:

First—"It is scarcely necessary to call your attention to the prosperity that is apparent everywhere in all lines of trade. The situation throughout the United States, from a business standpoint, was never better." You acknowledge by your silence that this statement is true.

Second—"What we want is a continuance of these conditions." You do not object, as president of the Acme sucker company, to "A continuance of these conditions." Republican prosperity seems to be a good thing, even for the president of the Acme Sucker Rod company.

Third—"A change in the administration in Ohio this year would be accepted as the precursor of a change in the national administration in 1900. Such a change, we believe, would be disastrous, as it would completely unsettle the business interests of the country." The people are not deceived, and, by your silence you admit that a change in the administration "would completely unsettle the business interests of the country"; but, intrenched as you are, in a monopoly which controls an article of necessity, possibly you may not care if a panic should come. Secure in your patent, YOU can reap a rich harvest, while the poor suffer.

The part of my letter to which you raise objection is the appeal for contributions to defray the legitimate expenses of the campaign. I have no apology to offer for asking contributions from the business public generally, to which we have directed this appeal, and I am not ashamed of the fact that we are under the necessity of soliciting from the many rather than relying on the wealth of the one rich man, who owns, dictates and absolutely controls his party—a further evidence that the Republican party is the party of the people.

"forwarding a fraudulent, unscientific and wicked political system." Such a statement from one who claims to represent the people is astounding. In absolute monarchies there are no political parties—republics can not exist without them. As nations progress towards greater liberty, parties become a necessary part of their political systems, and are the legitimate channels through which the people register their verdict upon all great political questions. In order to sustain political parties, contributions are solicited to disseminate their principles. For over a century of American history, voluntary contribution, like that proposed in our circular letter, has been the method of sustaining political life. A contribution to disseminate and defend the principles of the party is as honorable as a contribution to any other public purpose.

In conducting your campaign you declare "no one has been or will be asked to contribute a dollar." Do you distribute the literature of your peculiar teachings free? Who pays the printing bills, postage and other expenses? Who pays the hotel and railroad bills of your speakers? Who pays the numerous agents that are working for you throughout the state? Have you not an office in Toledo employing a large number of clerks engaged in conducting your campaign? Who pays their salaries? Did you not receive contributions to assist in your nomination as mayor of Toledo? Did you not willingly receive contributions from outside sources to aid in your election? It is a significant fact that the Republican candidate for governor does not belong to the so-called privileged class, and therefore can not spend unlimited sums to secure his election.

Is it less than a bold assumption on your part that you should circulate a petition, secure signatures thereto, adopt a platform and nominate yourself for the high office of governor of the state? It is without parallel in American history. The people of Ohio did not assemble in convention and ask you to become their governor. You forced yourself upon the people and monopolized the management of your campaign. You are the party, candidate, committee, manager and exchequer; indeed you assume that "Jones is the whole thing."

It is your boast that you are a non-partisan candidate, but the facts are, the moment you complied with the law in securing the requisite number of signatures to your petition, and it was approved by the secretary of state, the movement you represent was recognized in the eyes of the law as a political party, and in spite of your pretense to being a non-partisan candidate, you are, after all, a partisan in the fullest sense of the word.

If elected governor of the state, without a legislature in sympathy with your vagaries, what single act of legislation could you secure, what one of your pet notions could be adopted? Your principal work of governor would be to dream of "reform" and write sounding phrases condemning existing institutions; while the legislature, in supreme indifference to your opinions, would enact such practical laws as conditions might demand.

Your sudden discovery of the giant evils of political party organizations seems strange. A political party organization was good enough for you three years ago. You found no fault with it then. It was good enough for you until March of this year, when you were defeated for renomination by the Republican party in Toledo. It was good enough for you up to June of this year, for you in various ways evinced a desire to secure the Republican nomination for governor. In your bitter disappointment you say that "party organizations are giant evils that have cursed the country for a century." Was the Republican party a "giant evil" when it nominated and elected you mayor of Toledo? Without that nomination and election, the country would probably never have heard of "Golden Rule Jones." You falsify history when you say this country has been cursed by political party organization. The past century of American history is the most glorious in the annals of time, and the brightest pages were written by the Republican party. Statesmen of all nations have gloried in our history, and it remains for you alone to make the discovery that our country has been "cursed" for the past century. By that charge you insult the wisest and best statesmen our country has produced. They have all been members of political party organization. Washington, Madison, Adams, Jefferson, Jackson, Webster, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield were enthusiastic in their devotion to party. Do you believe that these splendid heroes "cursed" this country by being strong party leaders? Do you not hesitate to enter the temple of liberty and defame every hero whose name is loved in American history?

In your letter you admit that you are one of the so-called "privileged class," for you subscribe your name "S. M. Jones, President Acme Sucker Rod Company." This is a protected monopoly. By virtue of a privilege that you own exclusively, you exact from every family in the state of Ohio, who uses oil, an additional revenue. The poor people of the state have made you rich; yet you prate about and seek to make political capital of your love for the poor. Why not give up your protected patent, and thus practice and not simply preach your doctrine? No more transparent humbug was ever offered to the people than the peculiar notions which you are advocating in the present campaign.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES DICK, Chairman.

A THOUGHT FOR ELECTION DAY.

After all the oratory of the campaign has expended itself, when the voter enters the booth to mark his ballot, two facts should control him:

First, to provide well for wife and children I must vote to retain prosperity. This I shall do by voting the Republican ticket.

Second, as an American I must vote to maintain the sovereignty of the United States over every inch of territory that belongs to us.

This also I can do by voting the Republican ticket. Love of home and country shall inspire me to do my duty as an American citizen.

John R. McLean claims to have a "practical" plan for doing away with the trust evils. He would limit the amount of capital put into any corporation. But he does not say whether this limit should be $50,000, or $100,000, or $500,000, or $1,000,000, or $2,000,000 or $10,000,000. It is a queer statesman who loudly proclaims a "practical plan" for one day and then shuts up when the people are asking what he means.

WILD FAKES.

Democrats Planned Them For Closing Days of Campaign.

THE DEMOCRATIC AVERAGE

They Have Put Forth Over One Roarback Per Day.

A FEW WORDS OF WARNING

Republicans Must Be On Their Guard Against a Wild Saturnalia of Fakes, Roarbacks and Eleventh-Hour Lies of Every Sort and Description.

The last days of the campaign may be expected to be prolific of roarbacks and wild Democratic falsehoods.

From the opening of the campaign Mr. McLean's Enquirer has been prolific of fakes of every sort and description.

No appeal to prejudice, however gauzy, has been overlooked by them in their appeal to public prejudice and passion.

Up to date the number of false and malicious campaign tales which have been put out through Mr. McLean's Enquirer, and which have been promptly refuted in every case where they were worth paying attention to, has averaged more than one a day since the nomination of Mr. McLean.

With this record in the early days of the campaign, every Republican knows what to expect during the last week. There will be a wild flood of outrageous falsehoods and fakes.

Already reports have been received at Republican state headquarters of stories of the most malicious and villainous kind that are to be sprung during the closing days of the campaign, with the expectation that it will then be too late for the Republicans to deny them, and that some voters may be fooled into voting for McLean, free silver and a panic.

It is not necessary to outline the information already in the hands of the Republican campaign managers of the state campaign. It is sufficient to warn every Republican that during the closing days of the campaign he may expect a saturnalia of falsehood and vilification.

It will not be surprising if the famous Morey letter forgery of 1880 is surpassed in the daring desperation of the Enquirer gang.

Republicans are warned in advance, and will be prepared to discount every eleventh hour fake that may come.

The people are justified in doubting the sincerity of William J. Bryan in opposing the administration's policy in the Philippines when they remember that he advocated the ratification by the United States senate of the treaty with Spain which brought them to us. He realizes that the demand to withdraw our troops in the face of the enemy is very unpopular with the American people, and he now takes the inconsistent position of affirming that he was opposed in the first place to our accepting them from Spain. When he can satisfactorily explain how it is possible for a man to be for and against a proposition at the same time, it may be understood how he could be in favor of the treaty by which the legal title of the islands passed to us, and now oppose the administration for carrying into effect the terms of that treaty.

"You think you know all about women, don't you?" asked the newly married boarder.
"No," replied the savage bachelor, "and I am mighty glad I don't."—Indianapolis Journal.

THE EAST END. ON THE FOUNDATION

Stone Work at New School to Start Tomorrow.

ELECTRIC LIGHT AT THE STATION

Will Not Be Installed Until First of the Year -- Approaching Marriage -- Among the Sick--Strike at French China Clay shops Settled-- News of the Suburb.

Tomorrow morning Contractor John Schmelzenbach will commence work on the foundation of the new East End school building. All the stone masons that can be secured will be put to work, as it is the intention to have the foundation completed within as short a time as possible. The excavation has been completed for several days.

NOT THIS YEAR.

Lights Will Not Be Placed In the East End Fire Station.

There will be no electric lights in the East End fire station until after the first of the year, according to a statement made recently by Manager L. W.
Healy, of the light company. He says the station will be supplied with all the lights required, but not until after the plant is moved from Pink alley to the power house. Mr. Healy intends to make some radical improvements in the East End after the plant has been moved.

The East End station has been wired for months waiting for the connection to be made.

LARGE RABBIT.

A Rabbit Shot by an East End Hunter Weighs Seven Pounds.

When Martin W. Elliott returned to his home last night from a hunting trip
he was the proudest man that ever carried a gun out of the suburb. He succeeded in capturing 8 rabbits, 1 pheasant and 3 squirrels. One of the rabbits was weighed after it was brought home and tipped the scales at 7.3 pounds. Those who saw it assert it to be the largest ever captured by an East End man.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

All Societies of East End Churches Will Meet Next Thursday.

Next Thursday afternoon the mission-churches will meet. There is much

Miss Florence Myler this morning received a number of curios from Manila from her cousin, Daniel Petrie, late of the Thirteenth Minnesota regiment, discharged two weeks ago at San Francisco.
Among them are two pairs of handsomer embroidered Filipino ladies' slippers, a pair of Chinese baby shoes of wood, and a long cigarette made in Manila. Miss Myler prizes them highly.

From the West.

Mr. and Mrs. William Calhoun, of Evansville, Ind., arrived in East End yesterday and will make their home here. Calhoun was employed in the Evansville pottery, but has taken a position as presser in Laughlin's new plant.

"I have also recommended these medicines to my friends
who suffered from female weakness."

"I was troubled for three years with ulceration and female weakness and my doctor gave me but little relief," writes Mrs. Lulu Hunter, of Allenton, St. Louis Co., Mo. "I saw an advertisement in the paper of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I began the use of it about a year ago.
I took five bottles of it, and one bottle of Golden Medical Discovery, and my health is better now than it was for years. I have also recommended these medicines to some of my friends, who suffered from female weakness, and good results have followed."

The greatest advertisement of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription are the women who have used it and been cured by it. It is not a common "cure-all." It has a single purpose, the cure of diseases peculiar to women, and this purpose it accomplishes thoroughly and permanently.

There is no alcohol, or opium, or other narcotic contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Such a claim cannot be truthfully made for any other preparation put up specially for women and on sale at the medicine stores. Accept no substitute.

Every sick or ailing woman is invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. All answers are sent in sealed envelopes, bearing no advertisement or other printed matter upon them. Address Dr. R. V.

How They Would Do It.

East Liverpool people are complaining that the council of that city is slow in accepting Andrew Carnegie's gift of money to erect a library building. If Andrew will only send money enough to Salem to erect a building he will see an example of acceptance on the spot that would do his heart good.—Salem

DEWEY IS TO MARRY.

Announced His Engagement to Mrs. Hazen, a Sister of John R. McLean.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey announced to some of his more intimate friends the fact of his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city. Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, chief signal officer of the army, who died about ten years ago, and a sister of John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio. Mrs. Hazen has no children, and since her husband's death has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about 40 years of age, and popular in the best social circles of Washington.

The news of the admiral's engagement first became known last night, when the admiral announced the fact to a few of his friends, and a delegation of Tennesseans. Later in the evening he visited the Lafayette Square theater, and, while there, also communicated the news to some of his near friends and to Secretary Long, who occupied one of the boxes.

While the date of the wedding is not definitely known, the understanding is that it will take place some time during November. She was the daughter of a former governor of Vermont. One child from that marriage, a son, is now living in New York. General Hazen, the former husband of Mrs. Hazen, died on Jan. 16, 1887, and a son from their union died last year.

A MISTAKE, SAYS ORVIS.

The Oil Operator Claims He Was Not Guilty of Forgery—Ellis Held For a Further Hearing Without Bail.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—William F. Ellis, a Boston promoter, accused of complicity in the larceny on Oct. 5 of $45,000 from the First National bank of Washington, Pa., was rearrested in police court and committed without bail until today. Cashier C. S. Ritchie of the First National bank, Washington, Pa., and James S. Hammond, a borough policeman of the same place, appeared in court against Ellis. Cashier Ritchie testified that the $45,000 had been given to T. J. Vandergrift, who has an office in the building of that name in Pittsburgh. The witness testified further that after forgeries had been discovered and bogus promissory notes had been repudiated by E. L. Parker & Co., bankers, of Baltimore, whose signature was attached, Vandergrift, in the presence of Ellis and at the office of the former, claimed to have sent Ellis certain drafts.

Since this statement was made, on the 19th inst., Mr. Ritchie admitted the bank with which he is connected had received all of the money back with the exception of about $13,000. The attorneys for Ellis made a strenuous effort to secure the discharge of the prisoner. Magistrate Deuel, though expressing the opinion that the case against Ellis was not very strong, decided to hold him for a time for the purpose of allowing the complaining witnesses further opportunity to produce additional evidence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—C. B. Orvis, the Pennsylvania oil operator who has been arrested here in connection with the forgery of papers for $30,000 in Washington, Pa., left for Pittsburgh in custody of an eastern officer. His wife and son will remain in Chicago, believing Mr. Orvis will have little trouble in proving his innocence.

"There is a big mistake somewhere," said Orvis. "If there has been any forgery committed I am one of the victims. I am sure, however, I will be cleared when I reach Washington."

KILLED A WOMAN SPECTATOR.

Bullet Went Wild Fired by a Fugitive From Justice.

IRONTON, O., Oct. 31.—C. P. Moore of Green River, Ky., resisted arrest for disorderly conduct and a running fight with the officers ensued. Moore emptied a 38-caliber revolver and one bullet, which went wild, passed through the window of a residence, killing Mrs. Lot Henthorn, wife of a clothing salesman, who was watching the fight.

Moore was finally captured after he had received slight wounds in the head and legs. Threats of lynching were made and Moore pleaded piteously for protection. The excitement quickly subsided when Moore had been lodged in jail.

M'GUFFERT WOULD NOT RESIGN.

Committee Will Report to New York Presbytery on His Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Prof. Arthur O. McGiffert of Union seminary refused quietly to resign from the Presbyterian ministry. At the final meeting of the committee of the New York presbytery it was decided so to report to the presbytery at its next meeting, Nov. 13.

The committee will report to the presbytery that Prof. McGiffert's views are not in accord with the cardinal doctrines of the church and will recommend that the presbytery refer the case to the general assembly of next May for more definite instructions. It is not certain that the presbytery will accept the recommendations of its committee to refer the case back to the general assembly as it is quite within its power to order a trial of Prof. McGiffert on its own responsibility. Prof. McGiffert and the members of the committee refused to discuss the controversy for publication.

The barnstorming crew had not eaten for two days and two nights. Suddenly the eldest soubrette appears with a quantity of eggs.
